CHILDREN OF THE LIGHT

The future king, David, in today’s first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God’s anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today’s Gospel. David’s family and the blind man’s community did not expect the miraculous grace of God’s love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were “blinded” by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to “see” the presence of God’s will for them. Both became messengers of God’s will. That same Spirit of God’s anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as “children of the light.”

Dear Holy People of God:

Jesus’ ministry is life giving! Our gospel tells us this story on how he cured the blind man from birth:

Jesus spat on the ground... made clay with the saliva... smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam”. So he went and washed, and came back able to see.

The blind man was cured! His eyesight and faith-vision reveals who Jesus is in this progression:

First, he identified him as “the man called Jesus”. His eyes saw Jesus the first time. His eyes became the gateway to his soul, and his heart was filled with hope. Second, he recognized Jesus as “the prophet”. His heart experienced love, and he felt being loved the first time. Third, he proclaimed, “Lord, I believe!” His faith reconstructed his dignity and integrity as the reflection of the God who created him in his own image and likeness.

And everywhere he goes, he continues to give witness to Jesus with passion: “The man called Jesus put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I see”.

If the blind man had the Pool of Siloam to encounter Jesus then, today, we have two Pools of Siloam that are available for us in our Lenten Journey - the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist:

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a sacred time for you and God. When you say, “Bless me Father for I have sinned”, God will assure you of his forgiveness with these words: “I absolve you from all your sins...” He will restore your dignity; and gives your life again!

The EUCHARIST is a thanksgiving celebration that Jesus continues to heal and love us, when he says: “This is my body, this is my blood... for you...” His body is a life-giver; his blood is a salvation provider.

During this Lenten Season, wash yourselves frequently with the healing grace of the Sacrament of Reconciliation; and constantly feed yourself with the saving grace of the Eucharist!

For your personal reflection: “When was the last time you visited the Lord in the Sacrament of Reconciliation? What prevented you to visit him?” God is waiting for you. Remember, God loves you!

God bless you all!
Fr. Romy, MS

Easter Triduum

This is the culmination of the Gospel, it is the Good News par excellence: Jesus, who was crucified, is risen! This event is the basis of our faith and our hope. If Christ were not raised, Christianity would lose its very meaning; the whole mission of the Church would lose its impulse, for this is the point from which it first set out and continues to set out ever anew. The message which Christians bring to the world is this: Jesus, Love incarnate, died on the cross for our sins, but God the Father raised him and made him the Lord of life and death. In Jesus, love has triumphed over hatred, mercy over sinfulness, goodness over evil, truth over falsehood, life over death. ~ (Pope Francis I)

Tagalog Corner - Ephesians 5:11-14
At huwag kayong magkaroon ng pakikipag-isa sa mga gawa ng kadiliman na hindi nag-bubunga, sa halip ay inyong sawayan ang mga ito. Ito ay sapagkat nakakahiyang banggitin ang mga bagay nag bagay na ginagawa nila sa lihim. Ngunit nalalantad ang lahat ng mga bagay na sinasaway ng liwanag sapagkat ang liwanag ang naglalantad ng lahat ng mga bagay. Dahil dito, sinabi niya: Gumising kayo na natutulog at bumangon mula sa mga patay. At sa inyo si Cristo ay maglilinaw-nag.

( Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.”)

Thank you! ACTS Retreats would like to thank all of you who came out and supported our Ontario Reigns hockey fundraiser, and also to those of you who joined us at the Valentines dance in February. It’s always a blessing to bring the community of St. Peter & St. Paul together for some fun and fellowship. Community is one of the main goals of ACTS Missions. We hope to get to know you all by name! Join us on retreat this fall.

Saint Louis de Montfort

Saint Louis de Montfort had a profound devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and wrote extensively on the virtues of Our Lady, what true devotion to her consists in, and how the faithful need to turn to her as the way to her Son, Jesus Christ.

St. Louis de Montfort stands in a long tradition of saints completely devoted to Our Lady, and his work has been influential in the lives of many other saints, notable among them is Pope St. John Paul II who took his papal motto “Totus Tuus” (Totally Yours)

Winter/Spring Scripture Study

“What happens when the Gospel is carried from one world to another and a Christian community is born in a new culture? How does the dynamism of the Gospel reshape the culture that accepts it? How does that culture enrich the Gospel with new ways of self-expression?” These questions are the topic of discussion in our scripture study, From Jerusalem to Antioch, which describes what happened when Jewish missionaries carried the Gospel from the Jewish world of Jerusalem into the Hellenistic world of Antioch to found a Christian community there. Historical origins in the early presentation of the Christian message, patterns of worship, teaching, and organization will be explored to better understand the origins of these first communities. This study will show how the process of transculturation of the Gospel leads the early Church to a deeper understanding of the mystery that lies at its heart. These discussions can enable us to better understand the impact of the Gospel as reflected in the experiences of the peoples of our multicultural Christian communities today.

We meet on Monday evenings from 7:00-8:30pm (JPII, 1st Fl) beginning Jan. 23 through May. The same session is repeated on Thursday mornings from 9:00-10:30am in the Parish Library beginning Jan. 26. There is a fee of $8.00 for our materials.

For further information, call Mary Ann Andel at 909-987-9312 x 250

The Stations of the Cross are a 14-step Catholic devotion that commemorates Jesus Christ’s last day on Earth as a man. The 14 devotions, or stations, focus on specific events of His last day, beginning with His condemnation. The stations are commonly used as a mini pilgrimage as the individual moves from station to station. At each station, the individual recalls and meditates on a specific event from Christ’s last day. Specific prayers are recited, then the individual moves to the next station until all 14 are complete.

The Stations of the Cross are commonly found in churches as a series of 14 small icons or images. They can also appear in church yards arranged along paths. The stations are most commonly prayed during Lent on Wednesdays and Fridays, and especially on Good Friday, the day of the year upon which the events actually occurred.

Women’s Cancer Support Group
Meetings will be every 2nd & 4th Tuesday of each month...4:30-6 pm (JPII, 2nd Fl)

Cancer affects a person physically, emotionally, psychologically, mentally, spiritually, and socially. Many times it is difficult to share one’s feelings with family members or friends. This group provides an opportunity to share your feelings and experiences with others in a caring and safe environment. By your sharing and supporting one another it will help give you the courage to cope with your journey regardless of what type of cancer you have. Judy Nelson, 909-880-4389 Contact/Facilitator

“I refuse to walk in the shadow of cancer and look forward to my future with hope, endurance, love, and laughter.” Judy Nelson, 02/08/08

I really enjoyed your mission. I am going through a really difficult period and slowly getting through it with God’s help. Your mission helped me through some pretty dark days. You will be in my prayers.

Thank you for a wonderful mission. I’m 82 years old, Catholic all my life. I felt that I was in the real presence of Jesus. Thank you so much for the peace I now feel.

I really enjoyed your mission. I am going through a really difficult period and slowly getting through it with God’s help. Your mission helped me through some pretty dark days. You will be in my prayers.

Throughout my life I have frequently heard ‘God loves you.’ I am not sure I ever truly felt this as strongly as I do now. Unconditional love – what a beautiful gift!

Tom Davis will be sharing a bit from “The Bible and the Mass” study. Tom is a trained St. Paul Center bible instructor & this study is from Scott Hahn, founder & President of the Saint Paul Center for Biblical Theology. Men & women will appreciate the beauty of the Bible & the Mass unveiled as you’ve never known it to be!

For more info, please call Michelle Workman at (909) 297-0714
