SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

25 FEBRUARY 2018

RCIA "PENITENTIAL RITE AND CALL TO CONTINUING CONVERSION"

This weekend at the 4:00:PM Saturday Mass, we celebrate a combined rite with *our Candidate who has been baptized in another Christian faith.

These rites helps her to acknowledge her faults and also to recognize that she has a fuller life within our Church community.*

As she approaches this final period of preparation to receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, we ask that you continue to pray for her and embrace her.

During the Lenten season, there will be a poster with the pictures of the Elect and candidates as you enter the church. When you see their picture, you will be able to put a name with a face. Please feel free to approach them and offer your support as they continue their journey of faith towards full initiation into the Catholic Church.

We invite you to offer your prayers for the newest members of our Church.

We invite anyone who may be interested in learning more about the Church to join us on Tuesday evenings. Adults meet in the parish hall library from 7:30PM to 9:30PM.

For more information on the process, please call one of the numbers listed in the directory of this bulletin.

SEVEN DEADLY SINS, SEVEN LIVELY VIRTUES

All adults and confirmed teens are invited to join us as we look at the seven deadly sins that are patterns of dysfunction that lead us to unhappiness.

Bishop Barron explains the pervasiveness of sins and how to counteract these sinful patterns through a conscious focus on a specific virtue for each sin.

Our study will go through Wednesday, March 7th. Each is an independent session. Please call Jenny Campbell in the parish office (ext. 243) if you have any questions.

The same session is offered at 2 different times each Wednesday:
Wednesday mornings 9:00 – 10:30 AM (upstairs JP11)
Wednesday evenings 7:00 – 8:30 PM (upstairs JP11)

PANORAMA OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

PANORAMA OF THE NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURE STUDY Sept. 2017 - May 2018

The world of the New Testament is so far removed from our modern world that it is sometimes difficult to understand what we hear in the Sunday readings or read in Scripture and how it relates to God's message of salvation for our world today. Our scripture study this year is titled, "Panorama of the New Testament", a study which will reveal the continued plan of salvation as it unfolded among the first generations of Christians from the missionary preaching of St. Paul and the Gospel stories of Jesus through the persecution of the early Christians as encoded in the book of Revelation and God's promise of a "New Heaven and a New Earth." This overview is beneficial both for newcomers to scripture study, as well as those who have already studied much of the New Testament. Our study meets on Monday evenings, beginning on Sept. 18, from 7:00 – 8:30 pm on the first floor of the John Paul II building and is repeated on Thursday mornings which began on Sept 21, in our Parish Library. The cost of our text is $17.00. For more information, please contact Mary Ann Andel at 987-9312 x 250 or maandel@stpeterstpaul.com.

ALL ARE WELCOME TO THE HOLY SPIRIT BIBLE STUDY WITH FR. JUAN.

Thessalonians, Timothy, and Titus.*

RCIA—Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Is God calling you to become Catholic?

It begins with an awareness...or stirring in one's heart for something more. It could be a curiosity or a sense of long for fulfillment. Maybe it's God calling you to explore the life of faith, love, and justice within the community of the Catholic Church.

The RCIA process offers an opportunity for you to learn and ask questions about the Catholic faith. It is primarily for the un-baptized, but also includes a special tract for those baptized in another faith tradition. We also invite inquiring Catholics to come and join us for a refresher on what they learned as children We meet all year round.

Please come and join us Tuesday evenings from 7:30PM to 9:30PM in the Parish Library.

For more information on the process, please call
Danny or Vicki Centurioni at 909-987-7971

(RCIA) Adapted for Children and Teens

Children (ages 7-12) and Teens (ages 13-17) who are interested in joining the Catholic Church are invited to participate in the RCIA adapted for Children and Teens. The goal is to provide a means of conversion suited to the student's age and understanding, and to prepare them for the reception of the Sacraments of Christian Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). Parents and sponsors share a loving journey with the student's by attending sessions with them and assisting them as they learn about Jesus and the Church, and ensuring that they experience a Catholic environment in the home. To participate more fully in this journey, we encouraged you to attend scheduled retreats, weekly Mass, special celebrations, and the Easter Liturgy. Our sessions begin in September and end in June.

Sessions held every Wed.6-7:30 pm. – (JPIL, 2nd Fl)

Feel free to contact us anytime throughout the year for program information

RCIA - A TEACHING MOMENT

Explain the term "Transubstantiation"

The scholastic term used to designate the unique change of the Eucharistic Bread and Wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. "Transubstantiation" indicates that through the consecration of the bread and the wine there occurs the change of the entire substance of the bread into the substance of the Body of Christ, and of the entire substance of the wine into the Blood of Christ, even though the appearances or "species" of bread and wine remain.

Principles for honoring your spouse:

- #1 The Golden Rule - Treat your mate the same way you want to be treated.
- #2 No Double Standards - Be as considerate to your spouse as you are to coworkers or strangers.
- #3 Honor Requests that your spouse asks you to do or not do. (The Love Dare, by Stephen and Alex Kendrick)

Divine Mercy

With my mercy, I pursue sinners along their paths, and My heart rejoices when they return to Me. I forget all the bitterness with which they fed My Heart and rejoice in their return. ...

What joy fills My Heart when you return to Me. Because you are weak, I take you in my arms and carry you to the home of My Father.

... "The great and generous thoughts of Catholic heroism are conceived, or rather inspired, at the altar where the Adorable Sacrament reposes; there, depend upon it, in silent prayer the noble damsel in heart rejects the world and its vanities, and plights her troth to the Spouse of her chaste heart; there the young ecclesiastic, bowing in meditation calm and sweet, muses on the triumphs of his schoolmates over the swords and red-hot pincers of Tonquin, and resolves to share in their crown of martyrdom; there whatever is planned for the Church of God that requires zeal and persevering energy is matured and resolved."

- A Victorian reflection from the writings of Cardinal Nicholas Patrick Wiseman (1802-1865) on the Blessed Sacrament & Catholic Heroism

How Do I Become Catholic?

*"Be doers of the word and not merely hearers."
—James 1:22*

God is calling. Now what?

Learning to Respond

God works in many different ways. Most of the time, God works through ordinary people and events—a parent, a friend, a beautiful sunset, a song, an inspiring story. Other times, we hear God's call during crisis moments or major life-changes—a birth, an engagement, a sickness, a death. Sometimes, we just have a feeling that something is missing. No matter what your reason for thinking about becoming Catholic, the Church's hope and prayer is that when God calls, you will respond. If you're reading this, you've already begun to respond!

One part of the Catholic Church's mission is to help people respond to God's call as best they can by helping them become more and more like Jesus. For Christians, initiation means falling in love with Jesus and living as Jesus's disciples. This is how we respond best to God's call. Through the process of becoming Catholic, we try to help people learn how to respond to God's call not just for the moment of baptism but for everyday of their lives. The way we learn to do that is by hanging out with Catholics and actually doing what Catholics do. So the process of becoming Catholic is not so much about learning things as in a classroom but entering a way of life, as an apprentice learns from a master and that master's community.

What made you read this flyer? Has something happened in your life that has made you wonder about becoming Catholic? What questions would you ask a Catholic person?

Becoming an Apprentice

At a university art department, a "master potter" was the teacher for all the pottery students. But his students didn't really have classes in a classroom. What they did have was a lifestyle, or a discipline, and they all agreed to live by that lifestyle. In their discipline, the master potter agreed to teach them everything he knew, and the students agreed to watch the potter and follow his example. In a way, they became his disciples.

Every so often, the potter showed them a new skill, like making a tiny tea cup. Then he told them, "Now you try it. Practice making 100 tea cups like this every day for the next month. When you can do that, then you're ready to go on to the next step."

The love of God is not generic.
God looks with love upon every man and woman, calling them by name.

—Pope Francis

Yet the potter wasn't only teaching skills; he was also introducing them to the life of a potter. So he had them eat together using the plates and cups they made, talk about their struggles and joys with one another, take walks in nature together for inspiration, and chop wood together for the kiln to fire their pottery. Little by little, day by day, the students were becoming potters, learning by watching, doing, and living as the master did.

Our master potter is Jesus, and becoming Catholic is a lot like being his apprentices. We follow stages, watch for benchmarks, help each other, and learn and practice disciplines before moving on the next step. The process for this apprenticeship into the Christian way of life is called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (often called RCIA).

If you're ready to respond to God's call, contact your local Catholic parish and ask them to help you learn to follow Jesus.
