ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

The Christmas season is a most stressful time for someone who is incarcerated. A poem written by an inmate in part reads:

Here I Lay...
Here I lay in a steel cage, surrounded by men of all race and age.
I look out my window to be greeted with stares,
I yell for help but no one cares.

As we enter into the holiday season, we would like to ask for your help in showing our incarcerated sisters and brothers that some people do care. The Office of Restorative Justice coordinates the distribution of thousands of Christmas cards each year to prisons in our Diocese. We are in need of boxes of new, unsigned Christmas cards (especially Spanish-language cards) which are then given to inmates to send home to their families.

Deadline is Friday, December 7, 2018 in order to meet the prisons' deadlines.
Please: no cards that are, scented, or contain glitter, tassels, ribbons, plastic, pieces that can be removed or musical cards. Also, no cards requesting/requiring donations to an organization.

Mail or drop of boxes of cards:

Answering the Call- Mary's Mercy Center

St. Peter and St. Paul parishioners and their Charity in Action ministry answered our call to help meet the need, featured in our August newsletter. This community of believers has a knack for coming through when most needed. The shelves were all but bare and now there is a good supply of ready to eat items for the homeless emergency food bags. On behalf of our homeless guests we send you a very sincere Thank you!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
 November is a month of remembrance for the dead, and cemeteries have long been a focus for prayer. Our tradition holds great respect for bodily remains, since the body was created and redeemed by God, was once the “dwelling place of the Holy Spirit,” and has a destiny of life with God in glory. The funeral practices of the early church contrasted greatly with those of the pagans, who had a great dread of the dead body. The ancient Christian funeral liturgy ended with the relatives and friends giving a final kiss to the body. It expressed affection and showed their faith that the grave would not be the last word. This kiss horrified pagans, who thought that any contact with the dead was degrading.

Every year on their loved one’s “birthday to life,” the Christians would return to the place of their burial to mark their profound communion with those whose lives were hidden in Christ. Typically, they buried the dead with their faces turned toward the east, symbolizing the rising of the Sun of Justice, Christ, at the end of days. They were attracted to the catacombs or burial grounds just as we are today. They would often celebrate the Eucharist at the tomb. Before long, as soon as Christians were allowed to build places for worship, they relocated cemeteries from beyond the city walls to surround the church. This was not so much because the church made the ground holy, but because the bodies of the saints hallowed the ground on which the church was built, a subtle but beautiful difference.

ALIENTO

El Evangelio de este domingo es nuestra selección final de Marcos para este año litúrgico. Pertenece a las últimas enseñanzas de Jesús en Jerusalén y se encuentra inmediatamente antes del relato de su arresto y pasión. En este, Jesús da a sus discípulos esperanza para sostenerlos en su pasión y muerte y en cualquier persecución o sufrimiento que enfrenten después de su resurrección.

Las palabras del libro de Daniel también les brindan esperanza y aliento a los contemporáneos de Daniel. El aliento de estas lecturas también nos sirve a nosotros, ya que ninguno de nosotros puede evitar transitar tiempos difíciles en su vida. Los seguidores de Jesús podrán soportar el sufrimiento con esperanza porque saben que el amor de Cristo nos guiará para poder ser buenos discípulos y nos dará la vida eterna junto a Dios.

Estudio de Biblia en Español

“No solo de pan vive el hombre, sino de toda palabra que sale de la boca de Dios.” (Mateo 4: 4).

Estas palabras de Cristo nos presentan la obligación que tenemos de aprender la palabra de Dios. Debemos aprender el por qué somos Cristianos y para qué lo somos. Debemos aprender cómo conducir nuestra vida diaria y cumplir con nuestra obligación de educar a nuestros hijos. Nuestro estudio de Biblia en Español nos brinda la posibilidad de aprender estas obligaciones y cómo vivirlas. Por favor, únase a nuestro estudio de Biblia en Español y ensanche sus conocimientos de nuestra religión.

Nuestras clases son presentadas los Jueves a las 7:00 en el segundo piso del edificio San Juan Pablo II.

Los invitamos a ser parte de esta hermosa experiencia de vivir en comunidad y juntos entender la conexión de nuestras vivencias con las Lecturas Bíblicas. Las lecturas que se leen son las Dominicales y nos ayudan también a venir mejor preparados a escuchar la Palabra de Dios en Misa. En las Pequeñas Comunidades de Fé se busca que sus elementos: la Oración, Compartir la Fé, Apoyo Mutuo, Crecimiento y Acción/Misión se conviertan en una forma de vida que nos ayudará a formar, fortalecer, profundizar nuestra fé y a vivir en comunidad.

San Juan 15: 1-2,

“Yo soy la vid verdadera y mi Padre es el labrador. Toda rama que no dá fruto en mí la corta. Y todo sarmiento que dá fruto lo limpia para que dé más fruto.”

“Prayer, intimate dialogue with the One who is calling you to be His disciples, must come first. Be generous in your active life, young people, and be deeply immersed in the contemplation of God’s mystery. Make the Eucharist the heart of your day.”

– St. John Paul II

We would like to thank our A.C.T.S. Community here at St. Peter and St. Paul for their generous donations back to our parish. Each year they return to the parish funds from all their fundraising events to assist the parish. For 2017 and 2018 they gave us $2,150.00 which we used to purchase a machine that will help us to clean and maintain the laminate flooring in the parish hall. Thank you for all the many things you do for us all. The "S" in their name stands for service, and they do that in the most beautiful way! Father Henry Sseriiso

Feb. 22nd is the feast of the Chair of St. Peter the Apostle.

Attested as early as the mid-fourth century (in the Depsitio martyrum), it has its roots in the commemoration of dead relatives and friends (Parentalia), celebrated in Rome between Feb. 13-22.(Eventually moved to November 2nd) At this commemoration, a chair (cathedra) was left empty for particular deceased persons. Since the actual date of Peter's death was unknown, it came to be commemorated on Feb. 22nd, eventually celebrating his taking pastoral responsibility of the Church of Rome.

This is why we memorialize our beloved deceased family and friends when draping a pew in white during the month of November.

Mark 13:24-27

TAGALOG:

Sinabi ni Jesus, pagkatapos ng kapighatiang iyon, magdilig ang araw, hindi magliliwanag ang buwan, malalaglag mula sa langit ang mga bituin, at magugulo ang mga kapangyarihan sa kalawakan. Pagkatapos, makikita nila ang Anak ng Tao na nasa ulap, may dakilang kapangyarihan at karangalan. Susuguin niya ang kanyang mga anghel sa apat na sulok ng daigdig upang tipunin ng mga ito ang mga hinirang ng Diyos."

(Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.)

In addition to Eucharistic Adoration Wednesday and Friday, The Chapel will now be OPEN for PRAYER from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday

..“The great and generous thoughts of Catholic heroism are conceived, or rather inspired, at the altar where the Adorable Sacrament reposes; there, depend upon it, in silent prayer the noble damsel in heart rejects the world and its vanities, and plights her troth to the Spouse of her chaste heart; there the young ecclesiastic, bowing in meditation calm and sweet, muses on the triumphs of his schoolmates over the swords and red-hot pincers of Tonquin, and resolves to share in their crown of martyrdom; there whatever is planned for the Church of God that requires zeal and persevering energy is matured and resolved.”

- A Victorian reflection from the writings of Cardinal Nicholas Patrick Wiseman (1802-1865) on the Blessed Sacrament & Catholic Heroism
