In 1531, two years after the death of his wife, Maria Lucia, Juan Diego began receiving the famous apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patron of the Americas, who spoke to him in his native tongue, Nahuatl, and imprinted an image of Herself on his tilma – a poor indian's cape, and instructed him to have the bishop build a church on the site of the apparition – now the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the most visited church in the world, after Saint Peter's in Rome.

SAN BERNARDINO—Archbishop Christophe Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio to the United States, announced early Monday morning that Pope Francis has named Bishop Alberto Rojas as the Coadjutor Bishop of San Bernardino.

Bishop Rojas, 54, will work alongside Diocesan Bishop Gerald Barnes until his retirement and then become the third Ordinary Bishop in the 41-year history of the Diocese of San Bernardino. Per Church law, Bishop Barnes will submit his letter of resignation to Pope Francis on his 75th birthday – June 22, 2020. Bishop Rojas was introduced to the media and local diocesan leaders at a morning news conference held at the Diocesan Pastoral Center in San Bernardino. I will bring with me my trust in God and a humility at the responsibility He has given me,” Bishop Rojas said in his remarks. “I will have much to learn from the people of this Diocese and I pledge to open myself to what you have to share.” Bishop Barnes called the announcement of Bishop Rojas an “historic day” in the life of the Diocese. He expressed hope that Bishop Rojas’ time as Coadjutor will serve to familiarize him with the vast and populous Diocese of San Bernardino, the nation’s fifth largest, covering 27,000 square miles across two counties. “I asked the Vatican to send us a Coadjutor Bishop so that he would have a chance to get to know the Diocese, and the Diocese would have a chance to get to know him,” Bishop Barnes said before introducing Bishop Rojas at the press conference. “I know my time here as Auxiliary Bishop was extremely helpful in preparing me to be the Ordinary Bishop. I wanted the same for our Coadjutor Bishop.” Cardinal Blase Cupich of the Archdiocese of Chicago offered words congratulations to the Diocese and praised Bishop Rojas’ pastoral gifts. “Bishop Alberto Rojas is beloved here in Chicago. As we congratulate him on his appointment to San Bernardino, we do so with hearts full of gratitude for all he has done. He will be missed. Soon the faithful, religious and clergy of San Bernardino will come to love and respect this holy and intelligent man, as we do here in Chicago. I am confident he will build on the good work of Bishop Barnes, a dedicated pastor who is one of the most respected bishops in our country.”

Bishop Rojas was born in Aguascalientes, Mexico and emigrated to the United States in 1993 to complete his seminary formation at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein, Illinois. He was ordained a priest in 1997, working in parish ministry and then as a teacher at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary. He was ordained a bishop in 2011, serving Episcopal Vicar in Vicariate III and then Vicariate I. He has fulfilled a number of key assignments on national committees for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) including Hispanic Affairs, Liturgy, Catholic Home Missions and, most recently, as lead bishop for Region VII of the V Encuentro, a reflection and dialogue of the U.S. Church on the growing prominence of Hispanics in the Church.

Bishop Rojas said he would like to focus his ministry as Coadjutor Bishop initially in such areas as outreach to the poor, youth and young adult ministry, vocations and Catholic schools. “Bishop Barnes has told me that the greatest treasure of the Diocese of San Bernardino is the faithful spirit of the people here,” he said during Monday’s press conference. “As I prepare for this new chapter in my ministry as a bishop, I really couldn’t ask for more than that.” Bishop Rojas was to stay in Diocese until Dec. 3 before returning to Chicago. He is expected to begin his ministry as Coadjutor Bishop and relocate to the Diocese of San Bernardino in February.

"MENORAH" quiere decir lampara en hebreo. Según los libros de Zacarias e Isaías, la menorá es un simbolo del espiritu divino. La Palabra de Dios es esa lampara que ilumina nuestro pasos encarnada en nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Es por eso que queremos aprender mas de su palabra y sobre todo vivirla. Esta es una invitación al Pueblo de Dios a participar de un encuentro frontal con la Palabra de Dios para su aprendizaje y su aplicación en nuestra vida diaria.

I ask Pope Francis about his preferred way to pray...

"What I really prefer is adoration in the evening, even when I get distracted and think of other things, or even fall asleep praying. In the evening then, between seven and eight o'clock, I stay in front of the Blessed Sacrament for an hour in adoration."

Pope Francis,
 A Big Heart Open to God

Kung paanong kayo'y malugod na tinanggap ni Cristo, tanggapin ninyo ang isa't isa upang mapapurihan ang Diyos. Sinasabi ko sa inyo, si Cristo'y naglingkod sa mga Judio upang patunayang ang Diyos ay tapat, at tumutupad sa mga pangako niya sa kanilang mga ninuno, at upang ang mga Hentil naman ay magpuri sa Diyos dahil sa kanyang habag. Tulad ng nasusulat, "Kaya't sa gitna ng mga Hentil, ika'y aking pupurihin, At aawitan ko ang iyong pangalan."

Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God. For I say that Christ became a minister of the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, to confirm the promises to the patriarchs, but so that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written: Therefore, I will praise you among the Gentiles and sing praises to your name.
