HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue in short supply in today's world. And yet our reading from the prophet Zechariah describes Israel's coming king, in whom we Christians see Jesus, as humble, riding on a colt, the foal of an ass. No great procession for our Lord and God, for he comes not on a golden chariot with banners and a great procession of soldiers and riches, but on a humble beast of burden. What a contrast to our world of designer clothes and cars; of mega-mansions and architectural embellishments. Humility is not bragging about our worldly goods or our accomplishments. Neither is it the false humility of denying that what we do well is “nothing.” It is the acknowledgment of our faults and our successes, with a humble “thank you” to compliment or criticism.

FROM THE RIVER TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

How we long for peace in our world! It seems we are surrounded by constant news of death and destruction, whether in our own country or abroad. We hear and we grieve, we try to give shelter to those fleeing war and crime in their own countries. We pray for them and for ourselves, that fear may not overtake us and make us do foolish things or abuse innocent people. For “[God] shall proclaim peace to the nations” (Zechariah 9:10). We can rely on this promise of peace, if we become peaceful people ourselves and do not give in to revenge or deep anger. “You are not in the flesh . . . you are in the spirit” (Romans 8:9).

COME TO ME

Some of the most comforting words in the Gospels appear in today's reading. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest . . . For my yoke is easy and my burden light” (Matthew 11: 28, 30). Sometimes we carry what seem to be impossible burdens; we carry our cross. But we might be carrying the wrong cross. Our cross, we are promised, will be easy and our burden light. This might not seem to be true when we suffer the loss of a loved one, a job, our home, or our livelihood. But if we turn to Jesus, we will always find the comfort and loving kindness of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The children look to us adults for comfort and support, for “although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones” (Matthew 11:25). We can learn from children about our dependence on God.

So Jesus says to us, “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart” (Matthew 11:29). Again, the Lord's humility reveals neither bragging nor false denial of his power, but an acknowledgement of his love for us.

Prayer to Saint Joseph for intercession in Financial Difficulty

Dear Saint Joseph, You were yourself once faced with the responsibility of providing the necessities of life for Jesus and Mary. Look down with fatherly compassion upon those parish families in their anxiety over their present inability to support their families.

Please help them to find gainful employment very soon, so that this heavy burden of concern will be lifted from their hearts and that they are soon able to provide for those whom God has entrusted to their care. Help us to guard against bitterness and discouragement, so that we may emerge from this trial spiritually enriched and with even greater blessings from God. Amen.

 Perhaps we need to recall that Jesus warned His disciples many times that their lives would not be a bed of roses. He even told them, at the Last Supper, that He would not ask God to rescue them from the troubles of this world, but instead to strengthen them from falling prey to evil and despair (Jn 17:15). The divine love of the Sacred Heart, therefore, is shown not in an easy "escape" from the woes of human life, but in Jesus's ceaseless intercession for us before the Father, and in His putting on human flesh in order to share viscerally in our suffering.	Thursday, July 2 7:30 AM †Malou Manlapaz †John Nerey Friday, July 3 7:30 AM Marisela de los Rios †Daniel Richter Saturday, July 4 8:00 AM For Religious Freedom Mario Zarate Jr. - Happy Birthday 4:00 PM †Maria Castillo †Adela Woiteshek Sunday, July 5 7:30 AM †Juana Alamillo †Lois Brennan 9:00 AM †Feliciano Mislano †Carlito Malonzo 11:00 AM Mirote Family †Kenneth Smith †Luisito Talusan 1:00 PM †Jose Orozco †Ignacio G. Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

LET AMERICA LOVE ITS STARS AND STRIPES!

But let us also realize that America will conquer by other stars and other stripes than those on our flag, namely, by the stars and stripes of Christ, by Whose stars we are illumined and by Whose stripes we are healed. We pray, too, that His Mother, who stood at the foot of the Cross, may intercede to her Divine Son, that our world may receive Him before it lies in ruins. “If God is with us, who can be against us?”
