Solemnity of All Saints

FAMILY REUNION

Today we celebrate a glorious family reunion, the solemn feast that gives us a glimpse of all our brothers and sisters in Christ who have gone home to God before us. When we quiet ourselves to hear the Word of God today, we recall the mystery of our salvation. We praise the Lord who saves our loved ones who have died and who promises to have mercy on us as well. The reading from Revelation amazes us with its sweeping images of countless souls basking in God's glory. The Responsorial Psalm echoes our own longing to join those saints and look on the face of God. Saint John's letter affirms our deep desire to be with God, providing robust advice about how we may realize our hope: by living purely. The familiar words of Matthew's Beatitudes show the way to purity—and to genuine happiness, now and forever.

THE MISSION

Successful organizations live by strong mission statements. All Saints' Day reminds the Church of her mission: to know the love of God on earth in order to experience the fullness of God's happiness forever in heaven. The Church herself—and each one of us, her members—can use this celebration to give thanks and to renew our commitment to evangelization. If the heart of Jesus desires to unite all souls in heaven, then we must spend time every day actively praying for and serving God's people. In our words and actions, we can pour Christ's love into the world. We can be the light of the world, reminding everyone that this life is a foretaste of what is to come.

THE REWARD

God's enemy, Satan, does not want us to think of heaven, prepare for heaven, or long for heaven's peace. Satan wants us to forget about our connection to the Lord and live only for the glory we can find here and now. We feel that hellish pull whenever we grow tired of doing good, especially when no one appreciates or thanks us. We know the temptation to despair when we hear skeptics ridicule believers, especially if we can't point to convincing evidence that God provides for us that there is a life after this one. These shaky, uncomfortable experiences may come to us once in a while, or they may take root in our hearts and burden us for years. This is precisely why we must celebrate All Saints' Day with hearty gladness, because every single blessed soul in heaven is praying for us. The Communion of Saints is real, and the strength that Jesus sends to us through their prayers makes an actual difference in our lives. Just as we pray for one another here on earth, our big brothers and sisters in Christ continue to pray for us, inviting us to know and share the love of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14
 Psalm 24:1bc-2, 3-4ab, 5-6
 1 John 3:1-3
 Matthew 5:1-12a

Hermanos míos,
ahora somos hijos de Dios,
pero aún no se ha
manifestado cómo
seremos al fin.

1 Juan 3:2

REUNIÓN FAMILIAR

Hoy celebramos una gloriosa reunión familiar, la solemne fiesta que nos da una visión de todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que se han ido a casa con Dios antes que nosotros. Cuando nos callamos para escuchar la Palabra de Dios hoy, recordamos el misterio de nuestra salvación. Alabamos al Señor que salva a nuestros seres queridos que han muerto y que promete tener misericordia de nosotros también. La lectura del Apocalipsis nos sorprende con sus amplias imágenes de innumerables almas disfrutando de la gloria de Dios. El Salmo responsorial se hace eco de nuestro anhelo de unirnos a esos santos y mirar el rostro de Dios. La carta de San Juan afirma nuestro profundo deseo de estar con Dios, proporcionando consejos sólidos sobre cómo podemos darnos cuenta de nuestra esperanza: viviendo puramente. Las palabras familiares de las Bienaventuranzas de Mateo muestran el camino a la pureza, y a la felicidad genuina, ahora y para siempre.

LA MISIÓN

Las organizaciones exitosas se mantienen con firmes declaraciones de su misión. El Día de Todos los Santos refresca la memoria a la Iglesia de su misión: conocer el amor de Dios en la tierra para experimentar la plenitud de la felicidad de Dios para siempre en el cielo. La Iglesia misma y cada uno de nosotros, sus miembros, puede aprovechar esta celebración para dar gracias y renovar nuestro compromiso con la evangelización. Si el corazón de Jesús desea unir a todas las almas en el cielo, entonces debemos dedicar tiempo seriamente orando por y sirviendo al pueblo de Dios. En nuestras palabras y acciones podemos derramar el amor de Cristo en el mundo. Podemos ser la luz del mundo recordando a todos que esta vida es un anticipo de lo que está por venir.

LA RECOMPENSA

El enemigo de Dios, Satanás, no quiere que pensemos en el cielo, que nos preparemos para el cielo o que anhelemos la paz celestial. Satanás quiere que nos olvidemos de nuestra relación con el Señor y vivamos sólo para la gloria que podemos encontrar aquí y ahora. Sentimos esa atracción infernal cada vez que nos cansamos de hacer el bien, especialmente cuando nadie nos aprecia o nos lo agradece. Sabemos de la tentación de la desesperación cuando escuchamos a los escépticos ridiculizar a los creyentes, especialmente si no podemos señalar pruebas convincentes de que Dios nos ofrece una vida después de esta. De vez en cuando podemos tener estas experiencias débiles e incómodas o pueden enraizarse en nuestros corazones y mortificarnos por años. Esto es precisamente por lo que debemos celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos con abundante alegría, porque cada alma bendita en el cielo está rezando por nosotros. La Comunión de los Santos es de verdad y la fuerza que Jesús nos envía a través de sus oraciones hace una diferencia verdadera en nuestras vidas. Así como oramos unos por otros aquí en la tierra, nuestros hermanos y hermanas mayores en Cristo continúan orando por nosotros, invitándonos a conocer y compartir el amor de Dios.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

The Prayer of St. Francis

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy;*

*O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.*

*For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

Pray

Divine Mercy in My Soul from the Diary of
 Saint Faustina Kowalska

Before All Souls' Day, I went to the cemetery at dusk. Although it was locked I managed to open the gate a bit and said, "If you need something, my dear little souls, I will be glad to help you to the extent that the rule permits me." I then heard these words, "Do the will of God. We are happy in the measure that we have fulfilled God's will." (Diary, 518)

A Prayer for the Forgotten Dead

O Merciful God, take pity on those souls who have no particular friends and intercessors to recommend them to Thee, who, either through the negligence of those who are alive, or through length of time are forgotten by their friends, families and by all.

Spare them, O Lord, and remember Thine Own Mercy, when others forget to appeal to it.

Let not the souls, which Thou hast created, be parted from Thee, their Creator.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

1 John 3:2-3

Mga minamahal, mga anak na tayo ng Diyos ngayon, ngunit hindi pa nahahayag ang magiging kalagayan natin. Ngunit alam nating sa pagdating ni Cristo, tayo'y magiging katulad niya, sapagkat makikita natin kung sino talaga siya. Kaya't ang sinumang may ganitong pag-asa kay Cristo ay nagsisikap na maging malinis tulad niyang malinis.

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

An Intern Committee has been formed to assist our seminarian intern, Arinze Michael Ezeoke, while he is in the formation process. During the year he is with us, the committee members interact with him and the parish.

It is the responsibility of the intern committee to communicate with parishioners for feedback.

We invite you to reach out to any of these members with input about Arinze that you would like to share via text, email or phone call. You could also private message via Facebook.

Your feedback is a very important part of his formation process.

Pope Francis: Becoming restless seekers of the Kingdom of Heaven

Pope Francis says we are called to become “healthily restless seekers of the Kingdom of Heaven,” as he reflects on the parables of the treasure hidden in the field and the pearl of great value during the Sunday Angelus.

By Christopher Wells 26 July 2020

At the Angelus on Sunday, Pope Francis reflected on two of the parables told by Jesus in the day’s Gospel: that of the treasure hidden in the field, and that of the pearl of great value.

In both parables, those who find the “precious” items, that which is most dear to them, sell everything they have in order to obtain them. “With these two similes,” said Pope Francis, “Jesus proposes to involve us in the building of the Kingdom of Heaven, presenting one of its essential characteristics: Those who fully pledge themselves to the Kingdom are those who are willing to stake everything.”

Pope Francis said that the “decisive and radical” decision to give up everything to seek even more precious treasures shows that “the building of the Kingdom requires not only the grace of God, but also the active willingness of the human person.”

Healthily restless seekers

“We are called to assume the attitude of these Gospel figures,” Pope Francis continued, “so that we too may become healthily restless seekers of the Kingdom of Heaven.” As in the parables, this involves a cost: we must give up “worldly sureties” – such as “covetousness for possessions, the thirst for profit and power, and thinking only of ourselves” – which can hinder our search.

Too often, said the Pope, people lead “mediocre and dull lives, because they do not go in search of real treasure.” Seeking after the Kingdom of Heaven, on the other hand, is the very “opposite of a dull life: it is a treasure that renews life every day and leads it to extend towards wider horizons.” Seekers after the Kingdom “have a creative and inquisitive heart” leading them to “new paths” for loving God, our neighbor, and ourselves.

The adventure of holiness

“Jesus, Who is the hidden treasure and the pearl of great value, cannot but inspire joy, all the joy in the world,” said Pope Francis: “the joy of discovering a meaning in life, the joy of committing oneself to the adventure of holiness.”

Pope Francis concluded his reflection with the prayer that the Blessed Virgin Mary “might help us to seek after the treasure of the Kingdom of Heaven every day, so that the love God has given us through Jesus may be manifested in our words and acts.”

Let's Vote Pro-Life In November

We Americans have shared many years of pride for our country and accomplishments. We have also suffered pain in the loss of thousands of our military who died to keep us safe. We have survived the Great Depression and many, many storms such as tornadoes, hurricanes, and earthquakes through the years.

But we still have the biggest hurdle of all. We need to abolish abortion once and for all! It is the killing of tiny innocent babies in the womb of their mothers. Babies are a precious gift from God. And no one has the right to kill them! They used to be safe in their mother's womb. But since 1973 when abortions were made legal it has become the most dangerous place for a baby to be. All the baby wants is to be loved and cherished.

With the November 3rd election coming up, we have the means to right this terrible wrong. Abortion has already killed over 62 million babies in the USA since 1973. We could help save the lives of millions of babies.

Let's vote Pro-Life in November.

*Ruth Weber
Davenport Iowa*

Votemos Pro-Vida en noviembre

Los estadounidenses hemos compartido muchos años de orgullo por nuestro país y nuestros logros. También hemos sufrido dolor por la pérdida de miles de nuestros militares que murieron para mantenernos a salvo. Hemos sobrevivido a la Gran Depresión y a muchas, muchas tormentas como tornados, huracanes y terremotos a lo largo de los años.

Pero todavía tenemos el mayor obstáculo de todos. ¡Necesitamos abolir el aborto de una vez por todas! Es la matanza de pequeños bebés inocentes en el útero de sus madres. Los bebés son un regalo precioso de Dios. ¡Y nadie tiene derecho a matarlos! Solían estar a salvo en el vientre de su madre. Pero desde 1973, cuando se legalizaron los abortos, se ha convertido en el lugar más peligroso para un bebé. Todo lo que el bebé quiere es ser amado y querido.

Con las próximas elecciones del 3 de noviembre, tenemos los medios para corregir este terrible error.

El aborto ya ha matado a más de 62 millones de bebés en los Estados Unidos desde 1973. Podríamos ayudar a salvar la vida de millones de bebés.

Votemos Pro-Vida en noviembre.

nosotros vamos!

un encuentro matrimonial virtual

La experiencia de Encuentro Matrimonial es un refugio para el corazón que ayuda a escucharse y conectar más profundamente. No hay discusión en grupo. Se trata sólo de ustedes dos, aprendiendo a ser la pareja más amorosa y feliz que puedan ser. www.esperanzamatrimonial.org

Momentos matrimoniales y sugerencias para los padres

El 2 de noviembre la Iglesia Católica conmemora a los difuntos. Es obvio que tú y tu amor siguen más vivos que nunca ahora, pero no siempre será así. Que apunte cada uno una cualidad apreciable del otro. Comuníquensela hoy mientras todavía pueden leerla u oírla en persona.
