

Second SUNDAY of Advent

December 6, 2020

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

Mark 1:4

COMFORT

In 2020, we heard plenty of voices speaking out and sharing their opinions, but many of those words were not comforting or hope-filled. Sometimes, it was hard to know which expert or “instant expert” to listen to, and it is still difficult to hope as we struggle to regain our balance as a nation and as a Church. The Word of God offers us peace this day. All our readings remind us of a faithful God who always keeps the promises made. Isaiah prophesied about the end of Jerusalem’s time away from God, and the Psalm speaks of “seeing God’s kindness and hearing what God proclaims.” Second Peter explains that God’s timing may not be the same as ours, but good things await those who are alert. In the Gospel, John the Baptist reiterates and completes the prophecy of Isaiah by laying the groundwork and preparing the way for those who await the coming of the Messiah.

THE BEGINNING

With COVID-19, much time is spent wondering “where did it start?” or “who passed it on to whom?” Though science can tell us much there are many unanswered questions. Today’s Gospel is about as concrete as sacred scripture gets. We know this is the beginning of the Gospel of Mark, which was the first Gospel to be written down in about 70 AD. Unlike Luke and John, Mark does not begin with an infancy narrative of Jesus. He starts by proclaiming the prophecy of Isaiah. This section was written six hundred years before Christ, in another time of great upheaval, as the Israelites were displaced from their homeland during the Babylonian Exile. The first words of Isaiah 40 are “Comfort, comfort, my people.” John the Baptist starts by explaining he is the go-between, sent to “Prepare the way.”

DON’T SHOOT THE MESSENGER

While proclaiming the coming Christ is a thing of joy, John’s words are also harsh, reminding us to repent and prepare. People were threatened by them two thousand years ago, and some still are today. People can hear them and be turned off by “fire and brimstone,” and none of us like to be told what to do. But think about it. This year, we have all engaged in social distancing and endured hardships to protect our families and others.

Similarly, when you have company coming, you do house cleaning, meal prep, and lots of things to make the place ready for the arrival of your guests—necessary preparation. So we as individuals must make ourselves ready for the coming Christ to reside in us. This may mean repenting for sins, seeking the sacrament of penance, or taking time with a spiritual director. Perhaps it means carving out more times and places for Christ to be born in our hearts or taking on another spiritual practice. Maybe it means simply doing what the psalm asked and using our eyes and ears and mind and heart to seek Christ.

Segundo DOMINGO de Adviento

6 de diciembre de 2020

Apareció en el desierto Juan el Bautista predicando un bautismo de arrepentimiento, para el perdón de los pecados.

Marcos 1:4

CONSUELO

En 2020, escuchamos muchas voces que hablaban y compartían sus opiniones, pero muchas de esas palabras no eran reconfortantes ni llenas de esperanza. A veces, era difícil saber qué experto o “experto instantáneo” escuchar, y todavía es difícil de esperar mientras luchamos por recuperar el equilibrio como nación y como Iglesia. La Palabra de Dios nos ofrece paz este día. Todas nuestras lecturas nos recuerdan a un Dios fiel que siempre cumple las promesas hechas. Isaías profetizó acerca del fin del tiempo de Jerusalén lejos de Dios, y el Salmo habla de “ver la bondad de Dios y escuchar lo que Dios proclama.” El segundo Pedro explica que el tiempo de Dios puede no ser el mismo que el nuestro, pero las cosas buenas esperan a los que están alerta. En el Evangelio, Juan el Bautista reitera y completa la profecía de Isaías poniendo las bases y preparando el camino para aquellos que esperan la venida del Mesías.

EL PRINCIPIO

Debido al COVID-19, se dedica demasiado tiempo a preguntarse “¿dónde comenzó?” o “¿quién se lo contagió a quién?” Aunque la ciencia tiene mucho que decirnos hay muchas preguntas que no se han respondido. El Evangelio de hoy es tan concreto como lo son las Escrituras. Sabemos que este es el principio del Evangelio de Marcos, del que se cree fue el primero que fue escrito por ahí del año 70 DC. A diferencia de Lucas y Mateo, Marcos no empieza con una narrativa de la infancia de Jesús. Él comienza proclamando la profecía de Isaías. Esa parte de Isaías fue escrita seiscientos años antes de Cristo, en otro tiempo de gran cambio, cuando los israelitas fueron desplazados del territorio que habitaban y llevados al exilio en Babilonia. Las primeras palabras en Isaías 40 son: “Consuelen, consuelen a mi pueblo”. Juan el Bautista comienza explicando que él es el intermediario, enviado a “preparar el camino”.

NO DISPARES AL MENSAJERO

Si bien proclamar la venida del Cristo es una cosa de alegría, las palabras de Juan también son duras, nos recuerdan que nos arrepintamos y nos preparemos. Hace dos mil años, para algunas personas esas palabras fueron una amenaza y también lo siguen siendo para otras hoy en día. Las personas pueden escucharlas y ser apagadas por “el fuego y el azufre”, y a ninguno de nosotros nos gusta que nos digan qué hacer. Pero piensen en ello. Este año, todos nos hemos involucrado en el distanciamiento social y hemos soportado dificultades para proteger a nuestras familias y a otros.

Del mismo modo, cuando tienes compañía, limpias tu casa, preparas una comida y haces muchas otras cosas para preparar tu casa para la llegada de tus invitados, la preparación es necesaria. Así que como individuos debemos prepararnos para la llegada de Cristo a vivir en nosotros. Esto puede significar arrepentirse de los pecados, acudir al Sacramento de la Reconciliación o dedicar un tiempo con un director espiritual. Tal vez signifique desear más momentos y lugares para que Cristo nazca en nuestros corazones o buscar otra devoción espiritual. Quizá significa sencillamente hacer lo que el salmo nos pide y usar nuestros ojos, oídos, mente y corazón para buscar a Cristo.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

Food for Thought

Give consciously. Write your parish into your family budget. Whether it's on a yearly, monthly, or weekly basis, make your parish offering a line item. Planning ahead will keep you from resorting to digging in your pockets for spare change as the collection basket comes by. Using weekly offering envelopes or participating in an online giving program, if your parish offers one, are two good ways to make your giving conscious.

Give off the top. When determining how much to give our parish, many of us look to what's left over after other obligations have been met. We give out of scarcity and fear, rather than gratitude. Try (at least for a few weeks or months) putting your relationship with God and his people first. Whatever we have we owe to God's generosity.

Dear Parishioners,

For your convenience we have provided several ways you can send us your offering.

- Safely drop off in the office between the hours 9 am to 2:30 pm Mon-Thurs.
- Drop in the mail slot in the Serra Building which is checked daily
- Mail in to St. Peter & St. Paul, 9135 Banyan St. Alta Loma, 91737
- Online giving via our website stpeterstpaul.com
- Through your bank

Thank you for your continued support of our parish and we all pray that we will be back together in our pews very soon. May God bless you and keep you and your families safe.

Divine Mercy in My Soul from the Diary of Saint Faustina Kowalska

"Neither graces, nor revelations, nor raptures, nor gifts granted to a soul make it perfect, but rather the intimate union of the soul with God. These gifts are merely ornaments of the soul, but constitute neither its essence nor its perfection. My sanctity and perfection consist in the close union of my will with the will of God." SECOND SUNDAY
Advent
December 6

Almighty and merciful God, may no earthly undertaking hinder those who set out in haste to meet your Son, but may our learning of heaven's wisdom grant us the admittance to his company. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THIRD SUNDAY
Advent
December 13

Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God, the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ with righteous deeds at his coming, so that, gathered at his right hand, they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

“"Consuelen, dice Yavé, tu Dios, consuelen a mi pueblo”. (Isaías 40:1) Ya terminaron las elecciones, casi. Para muchos de los que viven en Estados Unidos es un consuelo, pero el 7 de diciembre se conmemora el bombardeo de Pearl Harbor. La vida muchas veces manifiesta una mezcla de consuelo, dolor y espera. Consuélnense mutuamente cuando hace falta.
