FULFILLED IN YOUR HEARING

The “fulfilled in your hearing” statement of Jesus today is also the conclusion of last week’s Gospel, with the words of Isaiah about the breadth of God’s mercy and justice at its heart. The response of the crowd in the synagogue is united: all are amazed, but all likewise ask if he’s not merely the son of Joseph the humble carpenter. Jesus calls them out for seeming to think that he ought to be doing his ministry only locally, and—selfishly—only for them. (After all, they know where he comes from!) When Jesus essentially replies “nope” through some proverbs and prophetic stories, all the crowd gets angry at his implication that the fulfillment in Jesus is for everyone, not just for them. When our “take care of your own” reflex kicks in, we would do well to recall that this isn’t the attitude of Jesus, nor is it the attitude of his mission that we continue to this day.

YOU’VE BEEN WARNED

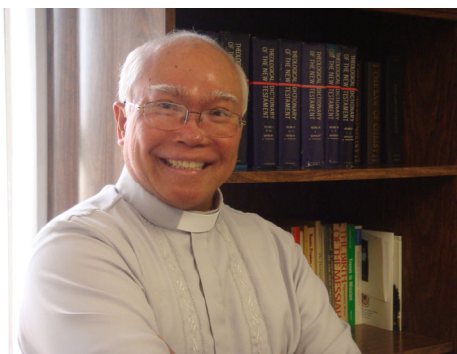

The opening of the reading selected from Jeremiah is surely one of the most comforting in scripture. Imagine! God knew me before my bodily conception; God dedicated me before my birth or any human dedication rites; God appointed me a prophet! Then comes the uh-oh. Jeremiah is warned that his appointment as a prophet will bring opposition, against which God’s prophets must stand up. Somehow the appointment as God’s prophet seems like it should be a bit happier, with the glamor that we might think will come from having friends in high places. Yet, just as there are many forces in the world arrayed against the divine will and divine goodness, so too are they arrayed against God’s prophets. A second round of assurances comes to Jeremiah, a pledge that God will be with Jeremiah to strengthen him. God doesn’t promise a turmoil-free life, but does vow to be Jeremiah’s strength.

JESUS, SON OF JEREMIAH

In the synagogue at Nazareth, a similar turn of events takes place. When Jesus speaks of the Spirit’s anointing being upon him, the anointing described in Isaiah, the crowd is amazed, and seems like they even want to take credit, since he’s a local boy. Then Jesus speaks some words of tough love, and “local boy” pivots to “who does he think he is?” You couldn’t blame Jesus, in that moment, if he recalled the words of Jeremiah, his prophetic ancestor. Though the crowd drove Jesus out of town and up a hill to throw him to his death, his time had not yet come. The strength and protection that God promises to prophets came for Jesus that day, as he passed through the mob’s midst, unharmed. He passed through their midst to continue the work for which the Spirit had anointed him. For us who follow the prophetic heritage of Jesus this day, we’ve been warned. But we’ve also been assured of God’s care.

TODAY’S READINGS

Jeremiah 1:4–5, 17–19
Psalm 71:1–2, 3–4, 5–6, 15–17
1 Corinthians 12:31 — 13:13
[13:4–13]
Luke 4:21–30

The Third Moment of the Epiphany: The Wedding at Cana: The Inauguration of the New Time

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 528 says: "The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Saviour of the world. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee."

Today, we reflect on the 3rd moment of the Epiphany of our Lord: The Wedding at Cana.

At first glance, we see here a miraculous event: the water turned into wine. But a deeper reading of the text would show certain strange things going on: Mary, the mother of Jesus is not called by name. In fact, she is never called Mary, by name, in the whole Gospel of John. The evangelist prefers to call her "Woman", putting this appellation into the mouth of Jesus. Or "mother of Jesus". It seems that there were two invitations extended earlier by the newly wedded couple: one for the mother of Jesus, and the other, for Jesus and his disciples. That is why they are mentioned separately, now in an equal level: the mother of Jesus on her own, and Jesus and his disciples together as a separate entity. When wine runs out, the mother of Jesus comes to the rescue. She tells her son: they have no more wine. Jesus replies: What has it got to do with us, woman? My hour has not yet come. The mother is provoking her son to be concerned with the possible embarrassment of the new couple. The son responds: should it concern us that they have no more wine? Should his hour start now? This is the inauguration of "the hour" of service, of sacrifice and of glory (John 12:23-28).

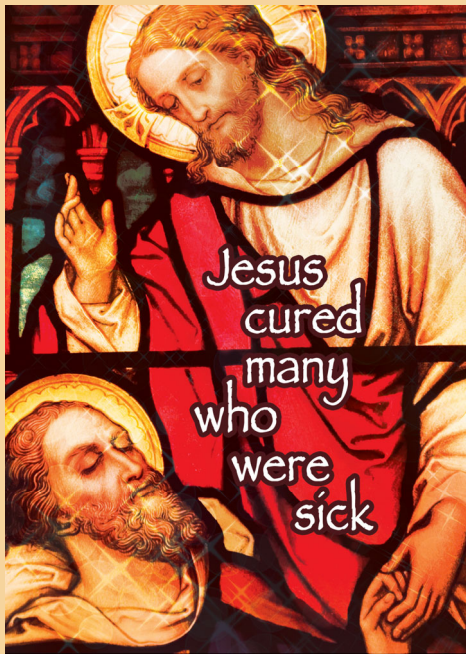

The mother knows that her son will never refuse her. So she told the waiters: Do as he tells you. And, indeed, Jesus instructs them to fill the jars with water. And to serve it. The best wine has come last, contrary to the traditional practice of serving it first. Traditionally, good wine is served first so that when people would get already drunk, an inferior wine can be served without their noticing the difference. With the water for purification turned into wine, the external rites of purification are not needed anymore. No one knows where the best wine came from but the mother of Jesus and the servers: only those who serve in faith and obedience to Jesus know where the blessings come from. Jesus is the origin of these blessings.

Here at the wedding feast in Cana Jesus manifests his glory. For John the evangelist, Jesus is the real bridegroom who serves the best wine to his guests. The mother of Jesus, the woman, has replaced the old woman and old mother of the old time of the old creation and of the old humanity. She is indispensable in the unfolding story of salvation: without her, no miracle could ever happen. She will be there in the fullness of the miracle of love that dares to suffer and die for the sake of forgiveness and the new life it brings on the cross. The new wine is the new drink of the new celebration of the new wedding feast of the new Kingdom of God. The Wedding at Cana, more than just a miracle, inaugurates the New Creation, the New Time of Salvation, the In-breaking of the Kingdom of God, the New Wedding Feast of the New Humanity and New Creation and the New Bridegroom. Jesus the savior manifest himself as the true bridegroom of humanity, of all creation, of the Church. Only people of faith, of obedience and of love can see this happening!

Having presented himself and manifested his glory at Cana, Jesus will now go to Capharnaum with his disciples and with his mother: a new community of faith with a mission to continue building the newly inaugurated Reign of God.

This is the new community of the new time: a community of faith and love, of hope and dreams, of faithful sacrifice and humble service. For ourselves today, let us be a community married to Christ, gifted by the Holy Spirit, participating in the creative love of the Father! Let us be a community, inspired by Martin Luther King, Jr. who dared to follow Jesus. A new community that dares to dream something that is truly new, truly grand and truly beautiful. A new community that dares to commit to the dream of Jesus, that dares to struggle to make the dream of Jesus for us, the Reign of the God, come true. In our audacity to struggle for the kingdom, Jesus is made manifest, and we become the Epiphany of Jesus in our time.

Dear Jesus, divine physician and healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. Oh dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen. —Catholic Prayers for All Occasions 1/27/2021

1 Cor 13:4-7

1 Cor 13:4-7

Ang pag-ibig ay matiyaga at magandang-loob,
Hindi malinggitin, hindi mayabang ni mapagmataas man,
Hindi magaspang ang pag-uugali,
Hindi makasarili, hindi magagalitin,
O mapagtanim ng sama ng loob sa kapwa.
Hindi ito natutuwa sa masama,
Sa halip ay nagagalak sa katotohanan.
Ang pag-ibig ay matiisin, mapagtiwala,
Puno ng pag-asa, at nagtitiyaga hanggang wakas.

Love is patient, love is kind.
It is not jealous, it is not pompous,
It is not inflated, it is not rude,
it does not seek its own interests,
it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury,
it does not rejoice over wrongdoing
but rejoices with the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
but rejoices with the truth.
It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshipping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

Meet Your Minister

Melissa Acosta

Youth & Young Adult Minister / LifeTeen Music Minister / AV / Bulletin Editor

Melissa has been serving in youth & young adult ministries for over 15 years. Before coming to our parish, she served as the Coordinator of Youth & Young Adult Ministries at Sacred Heart in Rancho Cucamonga for 5 years, and volunteered within youth ministry for 9 years prior. Melissa has been our LifeTeen Music Minister since 2019 and has been serving in music ministry since high school. Outside of youth ministries and music, Melissa enjoys serving with the ACTS community and other Liturgical ministries. She is currently in her final year of the Diocesan Continuing Ministry Formation Program and will be specializing in Youth & Young Adult Ministries.

ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL

CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Master of Ceremonies Ministry Be Part of the Team

The primary role of the Master of Ceremonies (MC) is to assist in organizing the Mass and directing all liturgical movement so it flows with the proper decorum. This is a vibrant, exciting and rewarding ministry. MC's commit to a minimum of one weekend Mass per month and an occasional meeting or weeknight Mass for special celebrations or feast days. MC's are required to have organizational skills, be able to give and take directions and work well with children (Altar Servers).

In our parish the Master of Ceremonies is responsible for the proper and smooth conduct of the various liturgical ceremonies such as the Solemn Mass, Triduum observances etc. We train on how to prepare the sanctuary and altar, instruct the altar servers in the liturgy, coordinate with the music director, ushers and EMHC and others involved in the liturgy. The objective is to relieve the celebrant from having to concern himself with the logistics of the ceremony and to allow him to focus on the sacramental aspects of the Mass

David DiGiuseppe is the Master of Ceremonies Ministry coordinator. Our Church is very much in need of both Men and Women to join this rewarding ministry. If you are interested in becoming an Emcee, or would like more information please contact David DiGiuseppe at daviddiguseppe@hotmail.com for more information.

Synod

Listening Sessions

The entire Catholic Church is called to participate in the upcoming Synod of Bishops! This Synod is entitled: "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission."

Pope Francis has called the entire People of God to journey together! This Synod is not just another meeting with oral presentations and written reports. This Synod is a process of journeying together by listening, dialoguing, praying, discerning, and making decisions together for the purpose of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis is asking each local diocese to gather - clergy, religious and laity together - to listen to each other's joys and hopes, and griefs and anxieties (c.f. Gaudium et Spes no. 1). The "goal" of this journeying together is not to create a new vision or pastoral plan with objectives. Rather, the goal of our journeying together is to be present with one another, to listen and learn with each other, and to grow closer to the Lord and His Church.

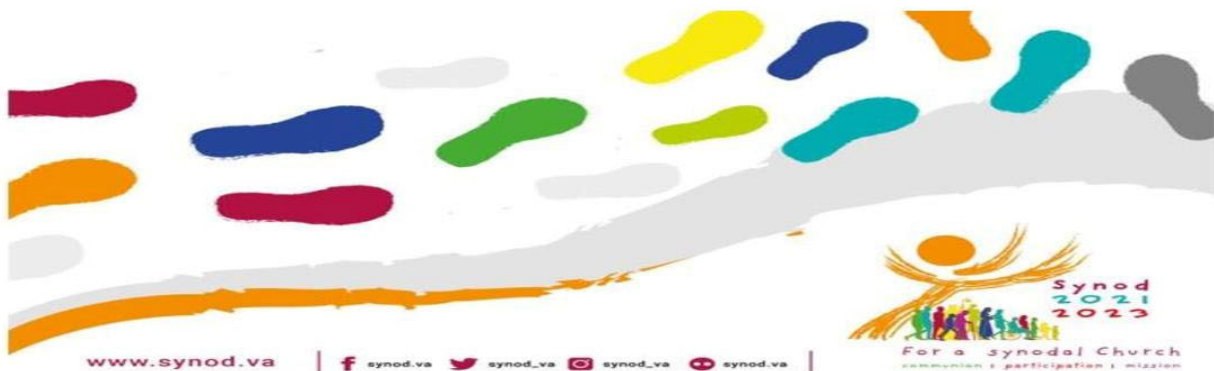

Location: Parish Hall

Date: January 29, 9am, Liturgical Ministries

Date: February 5, 9am, Service & Support Ministries, Prayer Groups, Organizations/Clubs

Hospitality will be provided, please RSVP with your ministry leader
