LIFE TEEN INTERNATIONAL—LIVE FILMING EVENT

ASHLEY'S NIGHT OF PRAISE XLT/PRAISE & WORSHIP

Plus shared writings, reflection and prayers from the heart of Ashley Scanlon-Smith

Ashley was a typical teen girl, raised in a Catholic family.
She loved to dance, hang out with family and friends,
and fearlessly ride motorcycles and horses.
Ashley always had a smile on her face that radiated sheer joy, however, she also had her fair share of struggles and crosses to bear throughout her short life.
Come and hear how God, an unexpected Angel, and Life Teen International, set Ashley on fire for Christ.

Ashley went to sleep the evening of November 13th, 2008 and woke up in Heaven.
No cause was ever found as to her passing at the young age of 17.

Life Teen International will be filming LIVE at this event as part of a short film production highlighting the inspired faith life of Ashley through the Life Teen event's she loved, attended and served.

Prayer For Our Sick
“Please Pray for the Healing of our Family & Friends”
 Please call the parish office, to add a person to the prayer list. Due to the many prayer requests, the name will remain on the list for 4 weeks. If additional prayers are needed, call to re-submit the name.
 Thank You & May God Bless you.

Dear Jesus, divine physician and healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. Oh dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen. —Catholic Prayers for All Occasions

Tagalog Corner

Nananabik noon ang mga tao sa pagdating ng Cristo, at inakala nilang si Juan mismo ang kanilang hinihintay. Dahil dito sinabi niya sa kanila, “Binabautismuhan ko kayo sa pamamagitan ng tubig, ngunit ang darating na kasunod ko ay magbabautismo sa inyo sa pamamagitan ng Espiritu Santo at ng apoy. Siya’y higit na makapangyarihan kaysa akin; ni hindi man lamang ako karapat-dapat na magkalag ng sintas ng kanyang sandalyas.

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.”

THE BAPTISM of THE LORD

JANUARY 9, 2022

A VOICE CAME FROM HEAVEN, “YOU ARE MY BELOVED SON;
WITH YOU I AM
WELL PLEASED.”

LUKE 3:22

A MODEL FOR OUR PRAYER LIFE

The Advent/Christmas cycle that began on November 28 ends with the Baptism of the Lord. We likely have an image in our minds (based on details from the Gospels and works of art) of what that scene looked like. We might wonder, “Who else was there and who wasn’t?” No disciples were present because Jesus had not yet begun his ministry. They would have to wait until the Transfiguration to hear a similar message. However, the three persons of the Blessed Trinity are accounted for: the Father (the voice from heaven), the Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. Interestingly, Luke alone notes that it was after Jesus had been baptized and while he was praying that the voice was heard. All of the Gospels show Jesus praying at turning points in his ministry; this is but the first example of Jesus’ need to root himself in prayer throughout his life—a model for us to follow.

ON THE CUSP OF A NEW CREATION

It was on the Fourth Sunday of Advent this past December that we first heard of the two cousins, John and Jesus, meeting. Then it was in the womb of their mothers, Elizabeth and Mary. Now the cousins meet again on the shore of the Jordan River. John is already well known—so much so that people had begun to wonder if he was the long-awaited Messiah. Jesus, on the other hand, is about to begin his ministry. One could say that Jesus entered the waters of the Jordan as a private person and came out of them as a public one. The voice from heaven left no doubt about that. As we come to the end of the Christmas season our readings echo Isaiah and Titus (see Advent and Christmas Day readings) and together with today’s Psalm 104 they point us to Pentecost. We are on the cusp of a new creation.

JOHN THE BAPTIST: PATRON SAINT OF LITURGICAL MINISTERS?

John the Baptist was what we might call today a “social influencer.” People paid attention to what he had to say. And what he said affected the choices people made. Yet today’s Gospel reminds us of John the Baptist’s ultimate goal: “One mightier than I is coming.” The Baptizer walks the fine line between drawing attention to himself with his fiery preaching and then re-directing that attention to Jesus, the “beloved Son.” John the Baptist could be considered the “patron saint” of those who minister as lectors, extraordinary ministers of the eucharist, cantors, greeters, acolytes, and musicians. Isn’t John’s teaching a good goal for a liturgical (or any!) minister? Rooted in the graces of their own baptism, ministers must be skilled and confident enough to draw people’s attention (or, at least, not turn them off!) and then gradually re-focus that attention on Jesus. It is a dynamic and awesome responsibility.

TODAY’S READINGS

A New Year's Blessing

O sacred and adorable Trinity, hear our prayers on behalf of our Holy Father the Pope, our Bishops, our clergy, and for all that are in authority over us. Bless, we beseech Thee, during the coming year, the whole Catholic Church.

Convert heretics and unbelievers, soften the hearts of sinners so that they may return to Thy friendship; give prosperity to our country and peace among the nations of the world; pour down Thy blessings upon our friends, relatives, and acquaintances, and upon our enemies, if we have any; assist the poor and the sick; have pity on the souls of those whom this year has taken from us; and do Thou be merciful to those who during the coming year will be summoned before Thy judgment seat.

May all our actions be preceded by Thy inspirations and carried on by Thy assistance, so that all our prayers and works, having been begun in Thee, may likewise be ended through Thee. Amen.

ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL  CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Master of Ceremonies Ministry Be Part of the Team

The primary role of the Master of Ceremonies (MC) is to assist in organizing the Mass and directing all liturgical movement so it flows with the proper decorum. This is a vibrant, exciting and rewarding ministry. MC's commit to a minimum of one weekend Mass per month and an occasional meeting or weeknight Mass for special celebrations or feast days. MC's are required to have organizational skills, be able to give and take directions and work well with children (Altar Servers).

In our parish the Master of Ceremonies is responsible for the proper and smooth conduct of the various liturgical ceremonies such as the Solemn Mass, Triduum observances etc.

We train on how to prepare the sanctuary and altar, instruct the altar servers in the liturgy, coordinate with the music director, ushers and EMHC and others involved in the liturgy.

The objective is to relieve the celebrant from having to concern himself with the logistics of the ceremony and to allow him to focus on the sacramental aspects of the Mass

David DiGiuseppe is the Master of Ceremonies Ministry coordinator. Our Church is very much in need of both Men and Women to join this rewarding ministry. If you are interested in becoming an Emcee, or would like more information please contact David DiGiuseppe at daviddigiuseppe@hotmail.com for more information

Epiphany: Its Meaning and Practice Today:

Fr. Ben Alforque

The celebration of the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord Jesus did not end last Sunday, January 2. In fact the event of the Epiphany has three moments, namely: (1) the adoration of Jesus by the wise men, (2) the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan, and (3) the wedding at Cana.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, 528, says: “The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Savior of the world. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee. In the magi, representatives of the neighboring pagan religions, the Gospel sees the first-fruits of the nations, who welcome the good news of salvation through the Incarnation.”

To relish this first moment of the Epiphany, let us savor Matt 2:1-12. Legend and history converge in the meditation of Matthew. History: in Israel there was a cruel tyrant and puppet of Rome named Herod. Legend: stars, constellations and extraordinary heavenly phenomena were associated with the birth of important persons, for the fulfillment of the hopes, the dreams and prayers of a people. Biblical culture scrutinized these astral phenomena in relation to their quest for a King-Messiah. The Jewish sect in Qumran invented horoscopes for this purpose. Num 24:17 depicted Naaman as prophet-astrologer who interpreted astral phenomenon: “a star shall come out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel”, towards victory against the enemy.

We see here an interplay of cunning deceitful Herod, on the one hand, and the wise honest truthful magi, on the other. We see here the power of violence of Herod versus the powerlessness of a poor child of peace. The kingdom of the city of peace, Jerusalem, usurped by a non-Jewish manipulative tyrant versus the tiny marginal house of bread, Bethlehem, from where the real shepherd would rise. These contradictions are meant to proclaim God’s alternative: Jesus is the inheritor of the Old Testament promises to Israel, but above all, the hope and fulfillment of this hope of all the peoples of the earth in all of history. Jesus is King-Messiah and Son of God, but above all, he is revealed in the humble fragility and radical vulnerability and helplessness of a child, son of Mary. His presence provoked the rejection of his own and the acceptance by the marginalized, the foreigner, the stranger. Those who left everything in search of their star, of the answer to their dreams have found this star, have followed this star, the child Jesus who filled with immense joy.

Like the magi, we are called to encounter this Jesus, the manifestation of this Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Savior of the World by entering into the mysterious loving intimate presence of God. Like the magi, we are invited to take the alternative route back home, the road of the child Jesus, the path of love and compassion, justice and peace, in humility and poverty, in fidelity to the will of the Father. We are invited to reject the road of Herod, his freeway of power and violence, of greed and corruption, of comfortable exploitation and mercenary puppetry to imperial powers.

In the Epiphany of our Lord, we are invited to build new habits and new structures to support our new dreams and resolutions. Don’t go back to the old. New dreams and new hopes are shattered by old habits and old structures! Rather, we must always go for change, for something new. New hearts, new habits, new structures. This is the law of nature and the road of repentance and conversion to the fullness of God’s Kingdom! Happy Epiphany to us all.

– Fr. Ben, MSC

Synod

Listening Sessions

The entire Catholic Church is called to participate in the upcoming Synod of Bishops! This Synod is entitled: "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission."

Pope Francis has called the entire People of God to journey together!

This Synod is not just another meeting with oral presentations and written reports. This Synod is a process of journeying together by listening, dialoguing, praying, discerning, and making decisions together for the purpose of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis is asking each local diocese to gather - clergy, religious and laity together - to listen to each other's joys and hopes, and griefs and anxieties (c.f. Gaudium et Spes no. 1).

The "goal" of this journeying together is not to create a new vision or pastoral plan with objectives. Rather, the goal of our journeying together is to be present with one another, to listen and learn with each other, and to grow closer to the Lord and His Church.
