At St. Peter and St. Paul Roman Catholic Community

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and end at 8:30PM via Zoom.
Meeting ID: 822 8756 9523 * Passcode: lectio

Dear Jesus, divine physician and healer of the sick, we turn to you in this time of illness. Oh dearest comforter of the troubled, alleviate our worry and sorrow with your gentle love, and grant us the grace and strength to accept this burden. Dear God, we place our worries in your hands. We place our sick under your care and humbly ask that you restore your servant to health again. Above all, grant us the grace to acknowledge your will and know that whatever you do, you do for the love of us. Amen. —Catholic Prayers for All Occasions 1/27/2021

PRAYER FOR OUR MEN and WOMEN IN MILITARY SERVICE

"O Prince of Peace, we humbly ask Your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity, and devotion the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Guard our churches, our homes, our schools, our hospitals, our factories, our buildings, and all those within from harm and peril. Protect our land and its peoples from enemies from within and without.

*Grant an early peace with victory founded upon justice. Instill in the hearts and minds of men and women everywhere a firm purpose to live forever in peace and good will toward all people.
Amen.*

Fourth Sunday of LENT

BE TRANSFORMED

Who knew that when Moses led the Israelites out of slavery it would mean forty years of wandering in the desert before they were able to enter the Promised Land? Many of us experience periods of wandering in our life. Perhaps we made some poor judgment calls in our younger days, or maybe as adult children we returned home to live because of struggling with substance abuse, or unemployment, or a divorce. Or maybe we fell away from Church for a bit. This is nothing new. The second reading calls us to be new creations in Christ, to put away our old selves, to be transformed; and in the Gospel we hear the beautiful story of the Prodigal Son. Each of these calls for us to move, and grow, and leave old ways behind.

TESTING THE BOUNDARIES

Some of the first words a two-year-old might say are “Do by self!” It is almost a rite of passage for teenagers to test their parents as much as they can. Every parent who ever lay awake in bed at night waiting to hear the sound of the child pulling the car into the garage or opening the door knows at least as much about praying vigils as any nun in a convent. This is a deep and earnest prayer, and the parents can barely breathe until their child comes home. Usually when we think of the story of the Prodigal Son, we think of the feeling of guilt the son had as he realized how much he had messed things up, or we feel the injustice that the older brother felt, because he wasn’t the rebel child leaving the home.

WELCOME HOME

What we don’t often remember in the story of the Prodigal Son is that God is there welcoming, urging us on. A few years ago there was a funeral for a young man who died of a drug overdose within days of coming out of a treatment center. Many of his young friends came but expected fire and brimstone, and to be told what a bad child that boy was. Instead, the priest preached about God loving this child so much that perhaps the only way God could protect him was to bring him home. That gentle image of God welcoming him with open arms soothed the broken hearts and unspoken questions that were on many minds. Not every situation is that drastic, but God is calling us home this Lent no matter what mistakes we’ve made, or how many times we have made them.

TODAY’S READINGS

VOCATIONS CORNER

Is God Calling You?
vocations@sbdiocese.org

Hello Friends,

My name is Rafael Flores and I am in parish internship assignment at Our Lady of Hope in San Bernardino. I am currently 34 years old. My home parish is St. Catherine of Siena in Rialto.

Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is also known as Laetare Sunday, meaning Rejoice! This Sunday, we have reached the halfway point between Ash Wednesday and the anticipated day of Resurrection. As the excitement and anticipation continue to build, how is our Lenten Journey going? I know that it feels like temptation is closing in from every side during this time especially, and perhaps we have already failed according to our own standards. But don't give up; Jesus is there to help you get back up when you have stumbled.

The Gospel for this Sunday is especially known to most of us. If you have ever hit rock bottom and have felt that you are too far gone for you to be loved by God, you're not alone. Sometimes we feel like we are off on this island, where no one experiences the things that we experience. Yet, if we talk to people, we realize that we all have similar experiences. In some way or another, we have all experienced being the prodigal son; we have at times lost our way. We turn our backs on God only to realize later that we made a mistake yet feel like we are no longer worthy to be His children. I must confess, I'm guilty of this myself.

However, I've learned that no one is too far gone, and certainly, God does not give up on anyone. The flip side to this is that sometimes we believe that we have never behaved like the prodigal son. We make ourselves believe that we are like the older son who stays with his father. If we find ourselves in this place, we must ask ourselves, "What gifts have I received from God?" but more importantly, "Have I squandered these gifts in any way?" For example, some of us have friendly dispositions, but we do not serve as ministers of hospitality. Some of us have great voices, but we have never blessed others with allowing them to hear it. The only times we tell people about these gifts or talents is when we have an icebreaker that begins with, "A talent people don't know I have is _____" (fill in the blank).

Rejoice, brothers and sisters, that we have a God that is merciful and just. He will not turn us away if we simply turn back from our sinfulness. May what is left of our Lenten season be a time of sacrifice and renewal for ourselves. Do not squander the gift of this season of Lent. Let us all use our time wisely as we continue to chip away at those things that prevent us from truly having an encounter with Jesus. Seek Him, and you will find Him!

TAGALOG CORNER

2 Cor 5:20-21

2 Cor 5:20-21

Kaya nga, kami'y mga sugo ni Cristo; ang Diyos mismo ang nakikiusap sa inyo sa pamamagitan namin. Kami'y nakikiusap sa inyo alang-alang kay Cristo: makipagkasundo kayo sa Diyos. Hindi nagkasala si Cristo, ngunit alang-alang sa atin, siya'y iitinuring na makasalanan upang sa pakikipag-isa natin sa kanya ay maging matuwid tayo sa harap ng Diyos.

So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

For a synodal Church

communion | participation | mission

Let us invoke the Holy Spirit
with greater fervour and frequency,
and humbly listen to him,
journeying together as He,
the source of communion and mission,
desires: with docility and courage.
