Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading)

is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and end at 8:30PM via Zoom.

PRAYER FOR OUR MEN & WOMEN IN MILITARY SERVICE

"O Prince of Peace, we humbly ask Your protection for all our men and women in military service. Give them unflinching courage to defend with honor, dignity, and devotion the rights of all who are imperiled by injustice and evil. Guard our churches, our homes, our schools, our hospitals, our factories, our buildings, and all those within from harm and peril. Protect our land and its peoples from enemies from within and without.

Grant an early peace with victory founded upon justice. Instill in the hearts and minds of men and women everywhere a firm purpose to live forever in peace and good will toward all people. Amen.

Palm Sunday

of the Passion of the Lord

April 10, 2022

“Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.”

Luke 19:38

HYMNS TO BE REMEMBERED

One of the best ways to remember something truly important is to set it to music. It can be easily recalled and sung by heart and passed on. As you focus on the scriptures for Palm Sunday, it might be helpful to think of them as past, present, and future versions of the same story. In Isaiah, we hear one of four hymns referring to the “Suffering Servant” that paints a poignant picture prefiguring Jesus’ crucifixion. “I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting.” Psalm 22’s refrain is some of the last words spoken by Jesus on the cross. The Philippians hymn is one of the most beloved and poignant passages ever, “Christ . . . becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.” All of these are songs, hymns to be remembered.

DO YOU KNOW THE STORY?

We might assume that we know the scriptures and tend to tune out something as difficult to comprehend as the Passion of Christ. What we often end up doing is taking all four of the Gospels and sort of mixing the accounts into one story. The theologian Gerhard Lohfink called this “making Gospel Soup.” Today’s Passion is from the Gospel of Luke, and there are some elements that are very different from Matthew and Mark (the other synoptic Gospels read in Lectionary years A and B), and John’s Gospel text which is always proclaimed on Good Friday. Let’s look at the elements that are specific to Luke as we break the Passion into five sections.

THE LUKAN PASSION

Lord’s Supper (22:14–38) Luke portrays Jesus as fiery and working for justice, both in his passion and in his ministry. The Passover feast is a very special time for the disciples, and while they are being commissioned, it is clear that they do not understand yet how they will carry on; Jesus warns them to protect them from evil.

Mount of Olives (22:39–53) Luke’s Jesus doesn’t seem as desolate as in other accounts about his imminent death, and goes to pray in regular fashion. He calls out his betrayer by name, hinting at foreshadowing of knowledge.

Peter’s Denial – Sanhedrin (22:54–71) One can see the special care Jesus takes for Peter, and the scene takes place in the courtyard where Jesus was earlier abused as prophet.

Trials before Pilate and Herod (23:1–25) In this account Pilate and Herod both proclaim Jesus to be innocent, and this heals a “rift” between them. Jesus is good even to those who maltreat him.

Crucifixion, Death, and Burial (23:26–56)

There are no soldiers; it is the chief priests who take Jesus to Pilate. Jesus’ words on the Cross are kind: “Father forgive them.” In Mark’ Gospel both criminals mocked Jesus, but here one of them begs forgiveness, and Jesus grants him salvation. Jesus’ last words show a sign of trust: “Father, into your hands . . .” May we also place our trust in God as we enter into Holy Week.

TODAY’S READINGS

Phil 2:8-9

Phil 2:8-9

Nagpakumbaba si Cristo at naging masunurin hanggang kamatayan, maging ito man ay kamatayan sa krus. Dahil dito, siya'y lubusang ifinaas ng Diyos, at binigyan ng pangalang higit sa lahat ng pangalan.

Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross, because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

GOOD FRIDAY

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

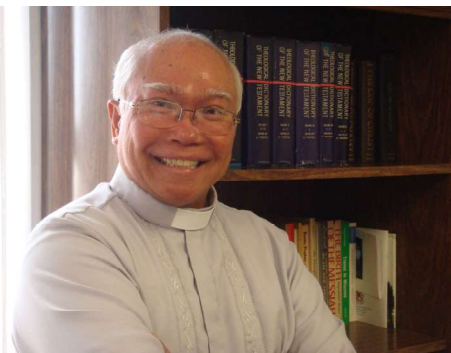

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the people of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

Commentary on the Readings of the Fifth Sunday of Lent.

1. Is 43:16-21

Commentary:

The new exodus, proclaimed in a much more poetic and dramatic way than the first one, is a new experience of liberation which Yahweh will accomplish for His/Her people. This would be more glorious and marvelous than that exodus from Egypt. The first exodus event may be forgotten, because something radically new is a-brewing. The exile is a time of purification and redemption of Israel; the deserts and wastelands with their inhabitants the new place of fertility, productivity and abundance. In this vision the prophet announces the arrival of the new things, of the new time: the new time of freedom, liberation and salvation for humanity and creation who worship God.

2. Phil 3:8-14

Paul rejects physical circumcision which ties the pagan converts to Christianity to the old Jewish conviction regarding the Law: return to the observance of the dictates of the Law in order to merit and achieve salvation by one's own efforts. To this, Paul proposes an alternative: "spiritual circumcision": the real way of worship which God wants, and to glory only Christ, and not on one's own efforts. Then Paul enumerates the gains by one's efforts according to the Law and rejects them all. He considers them as rubbish and a loss when compared to the "supreme good of knowing Christ." He unites himself with Christ, even if such a conviction of faith and life entails the consequences of sufferings that lead to the resurrection.

3. Jn 8:1-11

This story about forgiveness to a woman caught in adultery demonstrates that all humanity live in a glass house, and thus we cannot just throw stones at our neighbor's house. The men who charge the woman in the very act of committing adultery are themselves guilty of trying to commit adultery with her. Somebody was just ahead of each one of them to her. That's why and how they caught her. But Jesus calls us to compassion and to forgiveness of sinners. Otherwise, who can be forgiven and be saved when everyone else is connected to the structures of sin and evil?

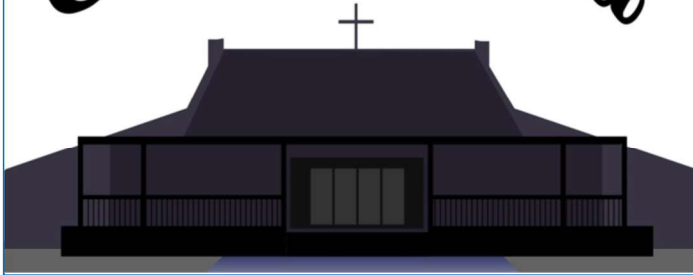

Many of us, if not all, are glad that we are finally going back to the "pre-pandemic" ways of celebrating the liturgy and doing our pastoral action. But it might be good for us to ask as well: wasn't the experience of the pandemic of 2 years our experience of the exile and the possibility of the new exodus in our time? Was there anything new that came about as a result of the pandemic? Did it bring me more closely to Jesus, and radically relativize everything that I am and all that I strove for? Was I able to develop a "domestic church" in these last 2 years? Will I abandon it now, now that the church is open once again? Or is it back to party-party, forgetting that I have been truly generous, and have discovered this inner capacity to be generous, so that others may live and grow while I decrease and be counted as nothing?

Shall I insert myself again to the structures of sin and evil which I have slightly abandoned during the pandemic by a life of simplicity and detachment? Will I go back to the "physical circumcision" that ties me down to the Law and the merits of a good life based on obedience to the Law? Or shall I assert this new found freedom, liberation and salvation in the "spiritual circumcision" that starts and ends with radical love of God and neighbor: Jesus Christ, the love incarnate of God?

For a synodal Church

communion | participation | mission

Let us invoke the Holy Spirit
with greater fervour and frequency,
and humbly listen to him,
journeying together as He,
the source of communion and mission,
desires: with docility and courage.

-Pope Francis
