John 14:27-29

John 14:27-29

“Kapayapaan ang iniwan ko sa inyo. Ang aking kapayapaan ang ibinibigay ko sa inyo; hindi ito katulad ng kapayapaang ibinibigay ng mundo. Huwag mabagabag ang inyong kalooban at huwag kayong matakot. Sinabi ko na sa inyo, ‘Ako’y aalis, ngunit ako’y babalik.’ Kung iniibig ninyo ako, ikagagalak ninyo ang pagpunta ko sa Ama, sapagkat higit na dakila ang Ama kaysa sa akin. Sinasabi ko na ito sa inyo bago pa mangyari, upang kung mangyari na ay sumampalataya kayo sa akin.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, ‘I am going away and I will come back to you.’ If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe.”

PICK OF THE WEEK

May 22, 2022

TRUE REFORMERS: EPISODE 3 ST. PHILIP NERI

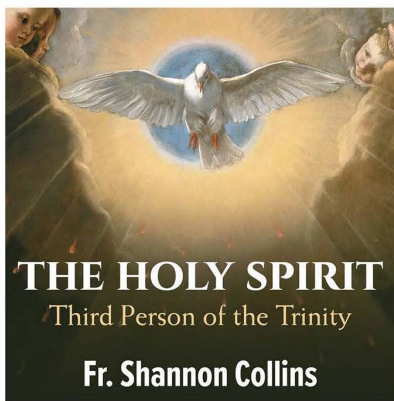

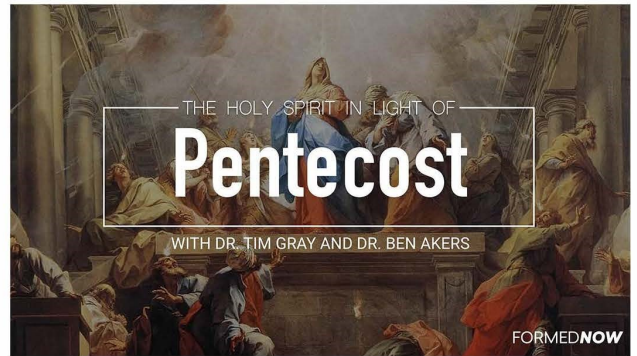

This week we celebrate St. Philip Neri, the Apostle of Rome. To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, St. Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer. Mystic, hermit, prankster, and effortless leader of men, Neri had a great sense of humor and an even greater heart.

FORMED NOW: THE HOLY SPIRIT IN LIGHT OF PENTECOST

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, often referred to as the birthday of the Church. Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers as they discuss Christ's sending of the Holy Spirit in this monumental event. After watching, you'll recognize the meaning of Pentecost for our lives today.

THE HOLY SPIRIT: THIRD PERSON OF THE TRINITY BY FR. SHANNON

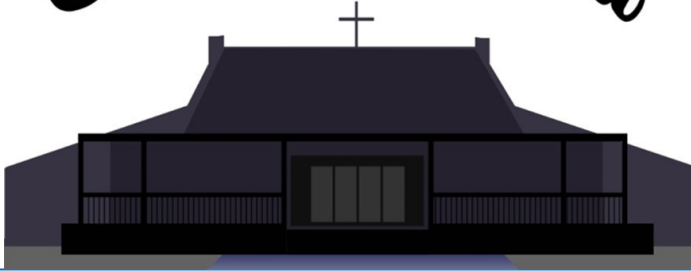

In this captivating presentation, Fr. Shannon Collins discusses the essential character of the Holy Spirit and his role in salvation history. Drawing upon Scripture and Tradition, Fr. Collins explains the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit and how he works in the lives of believers and how this "sweet guest of our soul" seeks to bring us closer to divine life.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

Jesus Christ and his Mission in the Gospels

(Please, read the whole gospel of St. Matthew, slowly and reverently).

The Lukan Story:

Luke uses the basic structure of the Markan drama and shares common sources with Matthew. He has his own special Lukan material, however, like the infancy narratives and genealogy in the beginning, and his own post-resurrection stories in the end. But, most significantly, in his Luke-Acts, he extends the geographical settings from Galilee and the Judaeen hills to Jerusalem, and then to Rome, the real imperial power behind Jerusalem. In fact, Jerusalem seems to take a central significance in the mission of Jesus in this Lukan gospel, and Rome as the final destination in the mission of the Christian community in the Acts through the person of Paul.

The decisiveness with which Luke wants us to see Jesus' single-minded resolve to enter Jerusalem is demonstrated by this contrasting description: Jesus set his face to go to Jerusalem, but the people along the way (a village of Samaritans) would not receive him because his face was set toward Jerusalem (Lk 9:51-53). For Jesus himself, within the context of a conflictivity, has been portrayed earlier as the sign of contradiction: his moment of acceptance is also his moment of rejection (Lk 4:22).

The unfolding of this contradiction can be traced by the Lukan use of "TODAY". This word appears 12 times in Luke's gospel and in truly well-positioned strategic places.

2:11 proclaims the biological birth of the savior TODAY

3:22 announces the claim for the divine birth of Jesus TODAY

4:21 declares the fulfillment of the scriptures in the beginning of Jesus' ministry TODAY

5:26 shows the acceptance of the great ministry of Jesus by the people TODAY

12:28 describes by comparison our human attitude in life relative to the primacy of God's reign TODAY

13:32.33 details the consequences of the ministry in relation to earthly kingdoms TODAY

19:5.9 asserts that salvation is possible for a repentant sinner on earth TODAY

22:34.61 illustrates the possibility of denying Jesus in order to save oneself TODAY

23:43 offers the finality: salvation TODAY is also decisively a future reality

This is the Lukan outline of Salvation History, punctuated by episodes and sayings of resistance by the poor and woes upon the oppressors and ruling cities. It is for this salvation history that Jesus is portrayed to have assembled a group of twelve, sending them to "preach(ing) the gospel and heal (ing) everywhere" (9:6b), "with the power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases" (9:1-2). The urgency and necessity of this Jesus' mission NOW have again been emphasized by the appointment of the seventy or seventy-two others, sent two by two, to prepare for his coming into every chosen village (10,1-12).

It is instructive to note that the gift of salvation and its finality is the mission of Jesus TODAY. We, the Christian community in history, are invited to participate in this mission of salvation of Jesus TODAY, even as its decisive fulfillment is tomorrow. Indeed, the past and the future, as a continuum, is in TODAY. (to be continued)

To my St. Peter and St. Paul family,

I cannot believe my time here is coming to an end. I came in very nervous, but you were all very kind and welcoming. This reminds me of Acts 15:4 which states: "When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared all that God had done with them." You have all been good models of service to me like the apostles and elders described in the Acts of the Apostles. Furthermore, your spirit of generosity continues to inspire others to give of themselves in service out of love for Christ. Before starting my internship, my understanding of parish ministry was very limited and theoretical. However, this experience has taught me that parish ministry is about accompanying people. Parish work is very diverse and requires knowledge in many different disciplines. For example, this year I learned so much about liturgical reverence, leadership, pastoral care, church administration, religious education, and several other areas. I want to sincerely thank you all from the bottom of my heart. You are all now part of my faith journey, formation process, and vocation story. I will always carry the people of this parish in my heart and keep you in my prayers. I encourage all of you to continue being a prayerful parish like Paul encouraged the church in Rome saying, "be fervent in spirit, [and] serve the Lord" (Rom. 12:11). Thank you and God bless!

Your intern seminarian,
Jonathan Garcia

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and end at 8:30PM via Zoom.

Please pray for our former pastor or associate priest, Father Charles Miller. He was in and out of the hospital for a month before his stay for three months now. His team of doctors haven't been able to pinpoint the cause of his illness yet. He was generally healthy and hasn't been in the hospital this much in his lifetime. He missed his first Holy Week and Easter. Please pray for his health and healing, if God wills it. Thank you.

Here is Father Charles Miller's information just in case you would like to send a card, visit, or get in touch with him.

Dear brothers and sisters,
let us have a good journey together!
May we be pilgrims in love with the Gospel and open to the surprises of the Holy Spirit.
Let us not miss out on the grace-filled opportunities born of encounter,
listening and discernment.
In the joyful conviction that,
even as we seek the Lord,
he always comes with his love
to meet us first..
