June 5, 2022

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me." —Matthew 25: 31-46

Thank you for your generous participation in St. Peter and St. Paul's ongoing food collection.
Non-perishable, currently dated food, may be left at any time in the receptacle in front of the Church office.
(Suggestions: pop tops, chef Boy ardee, cereal, peanut butter, crackers, ramen, granola bars, etc. disposable utensils, bowls and toiletries are also welcome.)

Update on your generosity:

Recently, Marie and Margarita, one of St. Vincent de Paul's five visiting teams, drove to and delivered 18 bags of your very generously donated food, gas, and food cards to the following who phoned our helpline:

*Five bags to a generational family of eight
Three bags to a mother and daughter living alone
Two bags to a homeless couple
Two bags to a woman living alone
Two bags to another woman living alone
One bag each to four homeless individuals*

If you are interested in joining our SVDP Team we invite you to attend our meetings and learn more about us. Our meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesday of the month at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Augustine room on the ground floor of the JP11 building.

In addition to the above distributions, we also donated food to Mary's Mercy Center in San Bernardino and His Hands in Upland.

If you or someone you know is struggling with utility bills or other needs, our helpline is available on

Dear Saint Peter & Saint Paul Catholic Church,

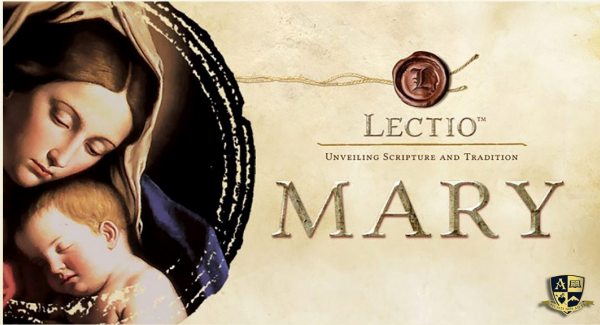

Spring is here and we are in the Easter Season. This time of year is a blessed time filled with renewal and celebration for the gifts God has given to us. Thank you for your donation to Mary's Mercy Center. Your support will allow us to continue to serve the Poor and Less Fortunate who live in our communities.

Speaking of renewals, we are excited to share that we have reconsecrated our Veronica's Home of Mercy program with a new name: Mary's Haven. I am passionate about ensuring that all our programs are under the tutelage of our most Holy Blessed Mother Mary.

Thank you again for your generous donation of $768 to be used for our programs at Mary's Mercy Center.

Sincerely,

Father Michael Barry, SS.CC.

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and end at 8:30PM via Zoom.

Every May, our monthly mailing highlights Catholic Charities' work to support poor mothers and their families when they have nowhere else to turn for help. The love and hopes of low-income mothers for their children are the same as any other mother, yet there is a difference. Poor mothers must also endure the constant stress and burden of barely meeting their most basic needs, perhaps living paycheck to paycheck, raising their children while working or going to school, and struggling to do it all on their own.

Your decision to contribute supports our work in the community like caring for those mothers in need of help and hope. You are a true blessing for those in need.

Gratefully,

1 Cor 12:3b-7

1 Cor 12:3b-7

At hindi masasabi ninuman, "Si Jesus ay Panginoon," kung siya'y hindi pinapatnubayan ng Espiritu Santo. Iba't iba ang mga espirituwal na kaloob, ngunit iisa lamang ang Espiritung nagkakaloob ng mga ito. Iba't iba ang paraan ng paglilingkod, ngunit iisa lamang ang Panginoong pinaglilingkuran. Iba't iba ang mga gawain, ngunit iisa lamang ang Diyos na kumikilos sa mga taong gumagawa ng mga iyon. Para sa ikabubuti ng lahat, ang bawat isa'y binibigyan ng patunay na nagpapakitang nasa kanya ang Espiritu.

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

The Apostolic Penitentiary, at the mandate of the Most Holy Father Francis, willingly grants a plenary indulgence on the occasion of Masses of Thanksgiving of Fr. Michael Arinze Ezeoke, a newly ordained priest.

An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.

The usual conditions to acquire a plenary indulgence are:

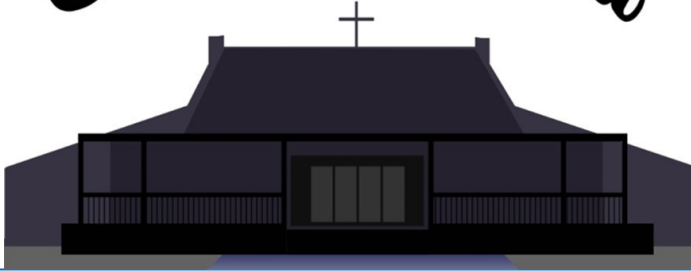

- detachment from sin; which is a true sorrow for, and repudiation of, all one's sin, mortal and venial;
- reception of Holy Communion on the day the indulgence is sought;
- prayer for the intention of the Holy Father on the day the indulgence is sought (one Our Father and one Hail Mary suffice .
- sacramental confession within twenty days of the completion of the prescribed work.

This indulgence may be received by attending any of these Masses and meeting the conditions for the indulgence.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

Pentecost SUNDAY

GOD'S ONGOING WORK

In today's Gospel Luke, the author of Acts, links the "time of Pentecost" to the Jewish Feast of Weeks. This was a harvest festival, fifty days after Passover. The feast became a celebration of God's gift of the Torah, the law of Moses, remembering Exodus 19. Luke suggests that just as the Feast of Weeks was a culmination of Passover, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit was a culmination of the Resurrection. In both Passover and Easter, God's extraordinary saving action rescued God's people from oppression and death. Because of these actions, the stage was set for the gift of Torah, and similarly for Christians, the gift of the Spirit. The ongoing presence of the Spirit sustains us to face life's burdens gracefully. The Spirit also challenges us daily to mature in our capacity to love, and to take part in God's ongoing work to rescue all God's people.

WHAT GOD IS UP TO

The Christian community gathered in the Upper Room, awaiting the Holy Spirit, has long stirred the Christian imagination. In our own time, when the Church has a long history of Christian faith but now faces many challenges, we might return to this image. Like the first disciples, we often don't know what to do next. What used to work for us doesn't work as well. We need to stay together, honor diversity, reflect upon the roots of our faith, and remain rooted in prayer.

Yet there is more. Pentecost has happened and is happening. The Spirit has already burst out into the world, already stirring among those who are confused about God. The Book of Acts tells the story of a Church continually pushed out by the Spirit, to join in what God was already up to, out in the world. We too are invited not only to remember our unity and our roots, but to pay acute attention to how the Spirit is working in our local communities.

VARIETY OF GIFTS

In today's second reading, Saint Paul wrote to the Church in Corinth, a community encountering tensions and divisions over spiritual gifts. Paul reminds them that the Spirit shares a variety of gifts; none is better than any other, and all are needed by the whole Church. The Spirit is revealed in the diversity of gifts offered by individuals and by distinct groups. The Spirit desires that the Church live as an interdependent, cohesive whole, as the Body of Christ.

A parish can be a collegial partnership where parishioners, clergy, and ministry staff can confidently share God's gifts. Gifts from persons and groups of diverse backgrounds can be honored. Gifts that tend to be less visible, such as in finance, custodial work, or administration, can be celebrated as much as those in preaching and music. May we notice God's grace in this diversity.

TODAY'S READINGS

Welcome to Saint Peter & Saint Paul Father Andres Rivera!

Father Andres was ordained on Saturday, May 28th
by Bishop Alberto Rojas.

O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear our humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father Andres Rivera. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope, and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life.

In his loneliness, comfort him; in his sorrows, strengthen him; in his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified. Show him that his is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy.

Amen.
