Thank you for your donation of $550.00.

Last year, Catholic Charities provided enough groceries for low-income children, adults and seniors throughout our two-country region to prepare over 1,000,000 meals. This was made possible through various weekly food distribution programs, grocery store vouchers, food gift cards, and food pantries in our regional centers.

Our ability to expand these kinds of programs that help low-income families in crisis would be impossible without your help. Together we are able to lend a helping hand to those in need as they regain stability and move forward with their lives.

Gratefully,
Ken F. Sawa, MSW, LCSW
CEO/ Executive Vice-President

Dear St. Peter & St. Paul Catholic Church,

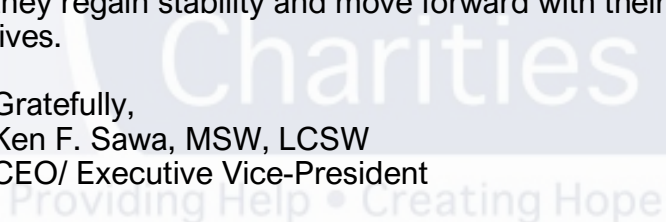

Thank you for your generous donation to Mary's Mercy Center. Your support allows us to open our doors and offer relief to the Poor and Less Fortunate. As the weather heats up, more and more homeless make their way to Mary's Table for showers and a hot meal. We are grateful to offer them a respite from the elements and a chance to share a meal in communion with us.

Thank you again for your generous donation of $1,262, to be used for our programs at Mary's Mercy Center. It will help us serve the Poor and Less Fortunate, just as God calls us to do.

Gratefully,
Father Michael Barry, SS.CC.
President and Chairman of the Board

Luke 10:40

ATTENTIVE TO GOD’S PRESENCE

Summer is in full swing and tent camping is often a memory-making part of it—sometimes just because of the difficulties of putting up the tent! In today’s first reading we see Abraham sitting at the entrance to his tent and welcoming three unexpected strangers. By the end of the story God’s covenant with Abraham is renewed with the promise that Sarah will give birth to a son. Psalm 15 answers the question, “Lord, who may abide in your tent?” The answer leaves little doubt about what is required to live in the presence of the Lord. In his letter to the Colossians Paul confirms that “the mystery” that was hidden from past ages is now being revealed. The Gospel account of Martha and Mary’s ways of welcoming Jesus again emphasizes the central truth that God’s promise of salvation is real and present—if only we would listen.

CHOOSING THE BETTER PART?

Is it possible to listen to the Gospel story about Mary and Martha without immediately “hearing between the lines” as Martha mutters to herself, “Why do I have to do all the work around here?” Or without always feeling the sting of Jesus’ gentle reprimand of Martha? Without slotting our friends into either the “Martha” or “Mary” column? Without quickly “translating” the story into a lesson about the value of listening over action? Interestingly, Mary never says a word in this story. All of the dialogue is between Jesus and Martha. The importance of first listening to Jesus is, without a doubt, essential to discipleship. We need to be deeply rooted in the Word of God if we want to spread the Good News and stand firm in time of trial or temptation. Yet what does that mean when guests need to be fed?

WHEN WORK BECOMES OUR PRAYER

We know that hospitality to strangers was a central value in the cultural world of Jesus. Abraham’s welcome of the three strangers at his tent was expected protocol for the time. Sarah’s meal-making for the unexpected guests is blessed with welcome news of a son—and the keeping of God’s promise to Abraham. Immediately before the Mary and Martha story in the Gospel of Luke is the story of the Good Samaritan. That parable is unwavering about the importance of action—of going out of our way for others. In the Abraham and the Good Samaritan stories, action predominates. Yet in the next chapter of Luke when a woman in the crowd shouts out, “Blessed is the womb that carried you . . .,” Jesus responds, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.” Hymn-writer Herman Stuempfle expresses well the relationship between action and contemplation when he writes that we thank the Lord both for quiet time and for the Word that accompanies us in our work and helps make that work a prayer.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Marriage Moments & Parenting Pointers JULY 2022

As I write this, heat and humidity are oppressing much of North America. Since it is summer it is supposed to be hot, but so much heat can make us grumpy and lethargic. What do you and your spouse do to escape the heat? What do people do without air conditioning? Couldn't you help a person for whom the heat is more than an inconvenience?

Momentos Matrimoniales y Pautas Para Padres JULIO 2022

Mientras escribo esto el calor y la humedad están oprimiendo gran parte de Norteamérica. Ya que es verano se supone que hará calor, pero tanto calor puede causarnos malhumor y letargo. ¿Qué hacen tú y tu cónyuge para escaparse del calor? ¿Qué hace la gente que no tiene aire acondicionado? ¿No podrían ustedes ayudar a una persona para quien el calor es más que un inconveniente?

“The intimacy found only in marriage can bring with it the greatest of joys and the saddest of sorrows...and even though according to God’s original plan marriage is indissoluble, and even though spouses consent to it hoping for a long and lasting relationship, the truth is that some marriages end in divorce.

For those who wish to marry again in the Catholic Church, an annulment is a necessary first step. Although it is painful and sorrowful to remember the details of a past marriage and subsequent divorce when one applies for an annulment, the hope is that an annulment helps in the process of healing, forgiving, learning, and moving forward in life, faith, and family.”

For one seeking an Annulment, a Marriage Advocate can assist in this process. They are persons who have completed the certification program from the Diocese of San Bernardino, Office of Canonical Services, by which they have been granted ecclesiastical authority to provide pastoral care and technical help to individuals in the application process and in establishing grounds of nullity.

From the Office of Canonical Services on marriage ending in divorce...

Luke 10:38-42

Luke 10:38-42

Si Jesus at ang kanyang mga alagad ay nagpatuloy sa kanilang paglalakbay, at pumasok sa isang nayon. Malugod silang tinanggap sa tahanan ni Martha. May kapatid siyang si Maria na naupo sa may paanan ng Panginoon upang making sa kanyang itinuturo. Si Martha naman ay abalang-abala sa paghahanda, kaya't lumapit siya kay Jesus at nagsabi, "Panginoon, balewala po ba sa inyo na pinababayaan ako ng kapatid kong maghanda nang nag-iisa? Sabihan nga po ninyo siyang tulungan naman ako."

Ngunit sinabi ng Panginoon sa kanya, "Martha, Martha, nababalisa ka at abalang-abala sa maraming bagay, ngunit iisa lamang ang kailangan. Pinili ni Maria ang mabuti at ito'y hindi aalisin sa kanya."

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

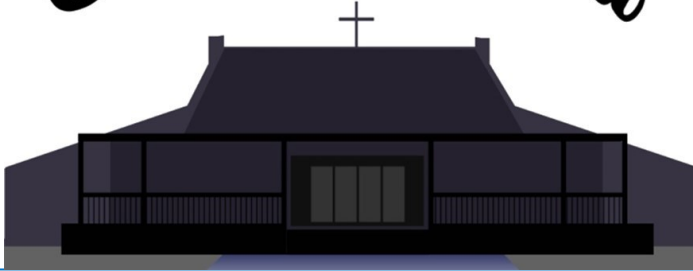

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and end at 8:30PM via Zoom.
