At St. Peter and St. Paul Roman Catholic Community

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and end at 8:30PM via Zoom.

Meeting ID: 822 8756 9523 * Passcode: lectio

Sometimes the strife in our world can feel heavy and burdensome. (Think Ukraine, political divisiveness, even family arguments). May the love that you carry for each other prompt you to find one act you can do to relieve someone else's suffering this week.

A veces nos parecen pesados y opresivos los conflictos de este mundo. (Piensa en la guerra en Ucrania, las divisiones políticas y hasta las discusiones en familia.) Ojalá que el amor que siente el uno para el otro les sugiera un acto que alivie el sufrimiento de otra persona.

Gal 5:1, 13-15

Gal 5:1, 13-15

Malaya na tayo dahil pinalaya tayo ni Cristo. Kaya magpakatatag kayo at huwag nang paalipin pang muli! Mga kapatid, tinawag kayo upang maging malaya. Ngunit huwag naman ninyong gamitin ang inyong kalayaan upang masunod ang hilig ng laman, kundi maglingkod kayo sa isa't isa sa diwa ng pag-ibig. Sapagkat ang buong Kautusan ay nauwi sa isang pangungusap, "Ibigin mo ang iyong kapwa gaya ng pag-ibig mo sa iyong sarili." Ngunit kung kayo'y nagkakagatan at nagsasakmalang parang mga hayop, mag-ingat kayo at baka tuluyan ninyong sirain ang isa't isa.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

Over 100 years ago, the Blessed Mother Mary appeared to 3 shepherds in Fatima, Portugal. Perhaps this, "Our Lady of Fatima" may sound familiar, but do you know the promises our Lady shared?

Please join on Saturday, July 2, to learn what these promises are- and how we can bring them into our lives!

Our fellow parishioner and member of the Blue Army of Our Lady of Fatima (also known as the World Apostolate of Fatima), Joan Combs, will be sharing insights of the Fatima message and our part in living out the message.

Parish Mission Statement

We the people of St. Peter and St. Paul Parish, as members of the Roman Catholic Church, are a sacramental, worshiping community on a journey towards the fulfillment of Christ's Kingdom. We strive to provide a spiritual haven for all people without distinction. We are equally committed to the challenges of the gospel message. We accept its call to ongoing conversion, the use of our gifts for the benefit of our community, and loving service to one another.

JESUS ANSWERED HIM,

“Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests,
but the Son of Man
has nowhere to rest his head.”

Luke 9:58

CALLED BY GOD

We return to Ordinary Time this Sunday, and with this new season we focus on what it means to be a person who is called by God for some definite purpose. Elisha recognized God’s call in Elijah’s greeting and prepared immediately to follow. The people who came to Jesus seemed ready to follow, yet each had reasons to linger behind. As people who are given the freedom to follow or to stay behind, we must ask ourselves what we are ready to do for the sake of Christ and the call of the gospel. What are you called to do at this time in your life? Are you prepared to leave behind the things that get in the way of living as a Christian?

FOLLOW

What does it mean to follow Jesus? The Gospels show us that Jesus called each person individually, recognizing the things that stood in the way for each. He looked into the person’s heart and saw the true desires of the person standing before him. Each of us experiences Christ’s call uniquely as the persons we are. For some, following requires us to take stock of our lives and let go of the obstacles that keep us from the way of true discipleship. For others, the call may lead us to deepen the way that faith directs our lives, with more intentional time in prayer, regular participation in Mass, renewed attention to family, involvement in our parish, or new acts of service.

BE READY

It is easy to say we want to follow Jesus, yet most of us feel competing desires that stand in the way of discipleship. We may be distracted by the constant swirl of activity so prevalent in our surrounding culture; we might be lured by worldly wealth and the status that often accompanies it; we may simply be comfortable with the way things are and find it difficult to risk changing anything. In today’s Gospel, Jesus makes it clear that we must stop putting off making the changes that will bring us closer to him and to God’s way of life. We must trust in the Lord, knowing that what he most deeply desires is that we be close to him. If you encountered Jesus today and said you were ready to follow him, what would he see in your heart, what obstacles or hesitations would he perceive? Go to Jesus in prayer this day. Listen to him say, “Follow me.” Prayerfully place your life in the Lord’s hands and be ready to follow.

Welcome to
Saint Peter & Saint Paul
Father Andres Rivera!

Father Andres was ordained on Saturday, May 28th
by Bishop Alberto Rojas.

O Jesus, our great High Priest, hear our humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father Andres Rivera. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope, and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life.

In his loneliness, comfort him; in his sorrows, strengthen him; in his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified. Show him that his is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which they have received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy.

Amen.
