NIGHT PRAYER WITH BENEDICTION

September 4, 2022

At St. Peter & St. Paul Roman Catholic Community

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and ends at 8:30PM via Zoom.

Can He Do That?

When I accepted the position of Liturgy Director for our parish, I wasn't certain as to what it would involve. I trusted that our pastor and the Holy Spirit knew what they were doing, as it was definitely a leap of faith for me. One thing for sure, I have come to learn a lot about our liturgies and how the Church wants them to be implemented. I receive many questions from people who attend our church or other Catholic churches inquiring about why something is or isn't done a certain way. They see something done one way in their church and wonder why it isn't done the same way when they visit their Aunt Harriet's church in Des Moines, Iowa. They want to know why one priest chants and others don't, or why one wears his stole inside his chasuble and another wears it outside. I never realized that there would be so much 'concern' over the rubrics of the Mass. The faithful really do want to know whether their priest is doing things properly or not.

Our priests are very different from a minister or preacher in another faith. They are ordained by the bishop and have a direct link to the Magisterium and The Vatican. This is called Apostolic Succession and it traces their authority all the way back to St. Peter and the apostles, who in turn, were empowered by Jesus Christ. They have three main functions in their ordained ministry...to teach, to govern and to sanctify the faithful. By their ordination, they are able to consecrate the Eucharist, and no other person has this privilege. A deacon, even though ordained, does not have this charism. Only a priest or bishop has the honor of presiding over the Holy Mass. A deacon or layperson can preside over other liturgies, i.e. a vigil services, a Liturgy of the Word or a baptism, but not a Mass

The Roman Missal is the big red book used at the altar in many Catholic churches. This book is used to guide and instruct the priest in determining the prayers and responses he will use for various Masses. Some of the prayers are fixed and others give several options, but it is strictly the decision of the priest as to which options are used. The General Instructions of the Roman Missal is where all rubrics are found and it is where we go for answers to questions pertaining to the celebration of Holy Mass. The priest is responsible for implementing all of the rubrics and providing the proper form of Mass for the faithful as the Church intended.

The priest is the 'conductor' of the Mass and has the authority to determine who will serve or assist. The deacon, acolyte and all lay ministers are under his charge when serving at the altar. He chooses some of the optional prayers and responses that are offered and decides how they will be recited or chanted. He has the option to insert explanatory remarks if he sees the need and he may also guide the faithful in their gestures and movements during the liturgy. When he stands...we stand; when he sits... we sit; when he kneels or genuflects...we kneel or bow. Our priests show us how to be reverent when celebrating Mass and every priest gives us Jesus Christ in the Eucharist...and that is truly a gift.

Any Catholic Community that has a priest should feel blessed for having one (or even two) in their parish. Unless a priest is teaching heresy or doing something illegal or sacrilegious, he is not in serious violation of any rubric or Church law. He is human and may make mistakes, just like you and I, but the last thing a priest wants to hear from the faithful is that he is doing something improper. However, he does need to hear how much he is loved and appreciated. Anytime we feel the need to approach a priest with a specific concern or criticism, it is good to do so with charity, kindness, and respect. After all, they do represent Christ here on earth and the sacraments do flow from their hands and their lips. They have given their lives for Christ and for us, the Church. They have chosen to forgo marriage and family, and this can make for a very lonely life. It is important that they know and feel that we are their family. Our hearts and prayers should always go out to our beloved priests because of the sacrifice that they have made in giving their lives to this blessed vocation.

There is a shortage of priests in our Church, and our bishops are doing everything in their power to contend with this crisis by asking for help from bishops in other countries. Our priests should not have to come from a foreign land. They really should be coming from our own families and the local Church Community.

Our priests are a gift from God and they are a blessing to our Church. If we sometimes forget about the importance of promoting vocations to the priesthood, we should remember that... they can have a Mass without us, but we cannot have a Mass without them.

Pray for our priests...pray for vocations.

Director of Liturgy

Isn't it ironic that Labor Day is a day when many adults get OFF work. However sweet your love for each other may be, the work of love takes no holiday. Do a favor for your honey today. Open a door, get a cold drink, watch the kids unbidden. It needn't be major, just do it.

Marriage Moments & Parenting Pointers

Es irónico el Día del Trabajo porque para muchos es un día SIN trabajo. Por dulce que sea su amor mutuo, el trabajo del amor nunca cesa. Hazle un favor a tu amorcito hoy día —ábrele una puerta, sírvele algo frío que tomar, cuida a los niños sin que te lo pida. No tiene que ser un favorzote —haz algo así no más.

TAGALOG CORNER

Luke 14:25-37,33

Luke 14:25-37,33

Sumama kay Jesus ang napakaraming tao; humarap siya sa kanila at kanyang sinabi, "Hindi maaaring maging alagad ko ang sinumang umiibig sa kanyang ama at ina, asawa at mga anak, mga kapatid, at maging sa sarili niyang buhay nang higit sa akin. Ang hindi magpasan ng sarili niyang krus at sumunod sa akin ay hindi maaaring maging alagad ko. Gayundin naman, hindi maaaring maging alagad ko ang sinuman kung hindi niya tatalikuran ang lahat sa kanyang buhay.

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

*Todos los Viernes en el Centro Pastoral
JP II 2do. Piso - 7:00 pm 9:00 pm.
Inf. : Raquel Aguilar (909) 740-5644*

Los invitamos a ser parte de esta hermosa experiencia de vivir en comunidad. En el ministerio compartimos y reflexionamos las Lecturas Dominicales y juntos buscamos su conexión con nuestra experiencias y su llamado a la conversión. La Palabra de Dios es compartida bajo las modalidades de Lectura Meditada, Reflexión Comunitaria, Lectio Divina y Noche de Salmos. En las Pequeñas Comunidades de Fé se busca que sus elementos: la Oración, Compartir la Fé, Apoyo Mutuo, Crecimiento y Acción/Misión se conviertan en una forma de vida que nos ayudará a formar, fortalecer, profundizar nuestra fé y a vivir en comunidad.

San Juan 15: 1-2,

"Yo soy la vid verdadera y mi Padre es el labrador. Toda rama que no dá fruto en mí la corta. Y todo sarmiento que dá fruto lo limpia para que dé más fruto."

The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18)

VOTE "NO" ON PROPOSITION 1

Sadly, California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion here, while its defeat would keep all abortion laws as they are, including our common-sense limits on late-term abortions. Our bishops are calling us to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1. Please visit www.CAcatholic.org/Prop1 to find answers to common questions and resources to help defeat this misleading, expensive, and unnecessary ballot initiative.

VOTE "NO" A LA PROPOSICIÓN 1

Lamentablemente, California ya cuenta con políticas de aborto entre las más permisivas del país. La Proposición 1 promueve una expansión del aborto aquí sin límites, mientras que su derrota mantendría todas las leyes del aborto tal como están, incluso con nuestros límites de sentido común sobre los abortos tardíos. Nuestros obispos nos están llamando a unirnos en oración y acción para derrotar a la Prop 1. Visite a www.CAcatholic.org/Prop1 para encontrar respuestas a preguntas comunes y recursos para ayudar a derrotar a esta iniciativa electoral engañosa, costosa e innecesaria.
