TAGALOG CORNER

2 Tim 3:14-17

2 Tim 3:14-17

Ang Panginoon ay Diyos ng Katarungan, wala siyang ifinatanging sinuman, hindi siya kumukiling kaninuman laban sa mahirap. Sa halip agad niyang dinirinig ang naaapi, lagi niyang dinirinig ang daing ng ulila at ang pagsusumamo ng balong nag sasaysay ng nangyari sa kanya.

Kinalulugdan ng Diyos ang naglilingkod sa kanya ng buong puso, ang panalangin nito'y agad nakaka abot sa langit. Ang dalangin ng mga mapag pakumbaba ay lumalampas sa mga ulap at hindi tumitigil hanggang di dumarating sa kinauukulan. Hindi humihinto hanggang di pinapansin ng kataas-taasan, at iginagawad ang katarungan sa nasa katuwiran.

The LORD is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint.

The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!

A Good 'Habit' Is Hard To Keep

We live in a society where many professional people are identified by what they wear while at work... policemen, firemen, nurses, doctors, military personnel, etc. We always seem to show a certain amount of respect to someone in 'uniform'. Most of these people have trained rigorously or studied diligently in order to earn our respect. They represent people we can trust and the uniform clearly identifies them for who they are and what they do.

Throughout the years, we, as Catholics, also recognized a certain uniform. The uniform that we learned to trust was that of the Roman collar. The uniform worn by a priest is referred to as a 'Religious Habit'. The purpose of this habit is to convey a sign of religious life and a commitment to the Church.

All priests take a vow of obedience and celibacy. The habit, when worn in the secular world, identifies the commitment one has made in his life. When out in public, the priest makes God present to all...believers and non-believers alike. Just like everyone knows the function of a policeman, the same holds true of a priest.

Without priests, there is no Eucharist or celebration of Mass. The priesthood is traced back to the time of the Apostles who laid hands on those who followed the way and were willing to serve in the priestly capacity. Before the time of Jesus, the priesthood was of similar importance to the Jewish people. The priest's chief role was to offer sacrifice, in the Hebrew religion then, as well as the Catholic Church today. The Catholic priest is ordained and called to teach, govern and sanctify the people of God.

It is unfortunate, that because of a very few "bad" priests, who abused children, many good priests choose not to wear the habit. They often are ridiculed in public, whether in line at the grocery store or dining with a friend. The percentage of abuse among priests is smaller than all other professions, i.e. teachers, youth counselors and coaches, and yet it is the one who wears the collar that suffers most for heinous crimes.

It would be wonderful to see every Catholic priest out in public wearing this beautiful uniform of love and sacrifice. But who can blame them, when society has passed judgment on the entire church for what a few have done? This is why it is our responsibility, as members of the Body of Christ, to nurture and love our priests.

We all go home to our families and live our lives, free to come and go as we please, once we finish our workday. A Catholic priest doesn't punch a clock and he doesn't leave his phone off the hook. He is on call 24 hours a day, and by his vows, he virtually promises to be there for his flock at all times. Next time you see your priest, let him know how much you appreciate the sacrifice that he has made...so that we may have Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. And it wouldn't hurt to mention how good he looks in his 'habit'.

Los invitamos a ser parte de esta hermosa experiencia de vivir en comunidad. En el ministerio compartimos y reflexionamos las Lecturas Dominicales y juntos buscamos su conexión con nuestra experiencias y su llamado a la conversión. La Palabra de Dios es compartida bajo las modalidades de Lectura Meditada, Reflexión Comunitaria, Lectio Divina y Noche de Salmos. En las Pequeñas Comunidades de Fé se busca que sus elementos: la Oración, Compartir la Fé, Apoyo Mutuo, Crecimiento y Acción/Misión se conviertan en una forma de vida que nos ayudará a formar, fortalecer, profundizar nuestra fé y a vivir en comunidad.

San Juan 15: 1-2,

“Yo soy la vid verdadera y mi Padre es el labrador. Toda rama que no dá fruto en mí la corta. Y todo sarmiento que dá fruto lo limpia para que dé más fruto.”

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It’s one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It’s a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God’s word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and ends at 8:30PM via Zoom.

VOTE NO ON PROP 1

Prop 1 is a worst-case scenario for abortion in California. It is an expensive and misleading ballot measure that allows unlimited late-term abortions – for any reason, at any time, even moments before birth, paid for by tax dollars.

Prop 1 isn't needed. Sadly, California already has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the nation that would remain in effect without the amendment, including our current limit on late-term abortions that are permitted only for the life and health of the mother. Prop 1 destroys this common-sense limit. California does not limit state spending on abortion, and with thousands more traveling from other states, the cost will be in the hundreds of millions. Don't hand lawmakers a blank check to pay for abortions, and don't let them make California an "abortion sanctuary."

VOTE NO ON PROP 1

La Proposición 1 es el peor de los casos para el aborto en California. Es una medida electoral costosa y engañosa que permite abortos tardíos sin límites – por cualquier motivo, en cualquier momento, incluso momentos antes del nacimiento – a expensas de los contribuyentes. La Proposición 1 no es necesaria.

Lamentablemente, California ya cuenta con políticas de aborto entre las más permisivas del país que seguirían en efecto sin la enmienda, incluso con sus límites importantes para el aborto tardío, que se permite por la vida y la salud de la madre. La Proposición 1 derriba estos límites de sentido común. California no limita el gasto estatal en aborto, y con miles viajando desde otros estados para procurar un aborto tardío, el costo será de cientos de millones. No entregue a los legisladores un cheque en blanco para pagar los abortos y no permita que hagan de California un "santuario del aborto".

Eucharistic Miracles of BUENOS AIRES

ARGENTINA, 1992-1994-1996

This is the account given by Professor Castañón regarding the Eucharistic Miracle that occurred in 1996 still in the Parish of Saint Mary:

“On August 15, 1996, a faithful received the consecrated Host in his hands to take communion but he let it inadvertently fall to the ground and thought not to pick it up because it seemed “dirty” to him. Another person, more pious, noticed what had happened, picked it up and placed it apart immediately informing the priest, Father Alejandro Pezet. The priest, following the directives of the Church in these circumstances, put the Host in a vessel full of water which he placed in the tabernacle awaiting that it would dissolve.”

The relic of the Host that transformed into flesh in 1996 at the Parish of Saint Mary in Buenos Aires

The then archbishop of Buenos Aires, Cardinal Bergoglio, with Doctor Castañón Gomez and some priests of the Parish of Saint Mary.

Father Alejandro Pezet, protagonist in the Miracle that occurred in 1996.

“On August 26 the tabernacle was re-opened to get the vessel with the fallen Host, and it was observed that it was not dissolved and showed several reddish stains that became larger each day. The priests of the parish went immediately to the Archbishop of Buenos Aires to recount what had happened. It was decided to wait before proceeding with the investigations and in 1999, after the Archbishop was made aware of the fact that I was performing for free these scientific investigations, he entrusted me to take up the case. On October 6, 1999, I went to Buenos Aires and interviewed the 5 priests’ witnesses of the event who told me that there had been another consecrated Host which had bled in May of 1992. They had put it in distilled water which is the worst way to preserve something and for this I was very concerned. Everyone knows that when one draws blood it is possible to obtain the leukocyte formula (white blood cells). In blood there is a variety of white blood cells with specific characteristics. The priests, in the first miracle, had asked one of their lady parishioners who was a chemist to analyze the bleeding Host. She discovered that it was human blood and that it presented the entire leukocyte formula. She was very surprised to observe that the white blood cells were active. The lady doctor could not however do the genetic examination since at that time it was not easy to perform it. I brought a sample from the 2 Hosts which had bled, before the archiepiscopal notary who certified the legality of that action, as requested by the authorities of the Church in Argentina. I would like to point out that before inviting me, the then Archbishop of Buenos Aires had already contacted the Holy See to ask for references about me. These were given by H.E. Most Rev. Gianfranco Girotti, who then was under-secretary at the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, and direct collaborator of Cardinal

Ratzinger. On October 21 I went to the Forensic Analytical genetics laboratory in San Francisco, which was supposed to perform the analysis of the samples that I had brought. On January 28 of 2000 they found some fragments of human DNA in the samples, it was human blood that contained the human genetic code. In March of 2000 I was informed that also the famous legal histopathologist Dr. Robert Lawrence, one of the top experts in tissues, would participate in this analysis. I feared for the participation of Dr. Robert Lawrence because this would have required some substantial costs which I would have had to bear myself, but I was told that they desired his collaboration because in the samples they had found some substances which resembled human tissues. Dr. Lawrence studied the samples and found in them human skin and white blood cells. In December of 2000 Dr. Lawrence told me that he could have obtained other samples of DNA.”
