Luke 20:34-38

“Darating ang araw na gaya ng isang nagbabagang hurno, tutupukin ang mga palalo at masasama gaya ng dayami at walang matitira sa kanila,” sabi ng Panginoon na Makapangyarihan sa lahat. “Ngunit sa inyo na nagpaparangal sa akin ay sisikat ang aking katarungan na tulad ng araw, at ang sinag nito'y magpapagaling sa inyo.

Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch, says the LORD of hosts. But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.

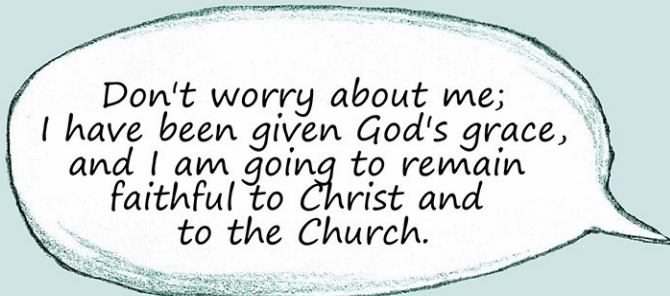

Mary's Mercy Center Urgent Call

Mary's Mercy Center has recovered from all the restrictions that had been put in place during COVID. They are in full operation serving the poor and marginalized families of the community. They desperately need volunteer assistance. We have a group of Parishioners from St. Peter & St. Paul the serve hot lunch to the guests that come to Mary's Mercy Center, on the last Sunday of the month. This Ministry Mary's Table has been in place for over 18 years. Many volunteers have come and gone over those years, some because God called them home and some just became too old to serve, others have relocated out of state. All who have volunteered over the years got more back than what they gave. The lives they touched is priceless as well as the love they received in return. Please if you feel the called to this beautiful corporal work of mercy contact Elaine Hein auntielaine1124@aol.com

Thank you for your generous donation of $2,827.00 to Mary's Mercy Center. Your support is a blessing to all those we serve at Mary's Mercy Center.

Thirty-Third Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

November

THE WORK OF DISCIPLESHIP

It is easy to go through life non-reflectively, living the routines of our days and weeks without giving much thought to the larger questions of meaning, purpose, and calling. We may know we need to change but put it off, thinking we'll love, serve, and care more in the future. We may face trial personally and be weary of trying to live as we know we should. We witness discord, violence, and division and it may feel that it is the end of the world. Today's readings urge us to put laziness, fear, or distraction aside and get about the work of discipleship with the assurance that the Lord will provide what we need as we do so.

THE SUN OF JUSTICE WILL ARISE

It may seem as though Jesus is talking directly to us in today's Gospel. While it is always true that the Gospel speaks across time and space, today's message feels particularly appropriate as we near the end of another year that has been filled with pandemic, political division, international tension, and economic concerns. Christ reigns over all these things, and as Christians, we hold firm in the belief that we will as well. We must take the long view—the truly long view of eternity—as we meet the challenges of our time. The sun of justice will arise. All will be well.

NOT A HAIR ON YOUR HEAD WILL BE DESTROYED. PERSEVERE.

The message of the Gospel is not abstract, nor are we distant hearers of its message. We face choices every day about how we will live, what we will or won't do, how seriously we will take Christ's call to live the truth of the gospel. At times, the choices we face seem inconsequential: will we sit on the sofa night after night, or choose to spend time with family or serve in our parish? Will we get up for Mass on Sunday morning ready to praise God and be part of our faith community, or drag ourselves there, grumbling every step of the way (or not go at all)? Choices such as these are of consequence of course, not only because each decision matters, but the patterns we establish in our lives are rooted in the cumulative weight of the choices we make. We may be called upon to make harder choices and must be prepared to do so. Jesus tells us to persevere. By doing so, we will secure our lives.

Los invitamos a ser parte de esta hermosa experiencia de vivir en comunidad. En el ministerio compartimos y reflexionamos las Lecturas Dominicales y juntos buscamos su conexión con nuestra experiencias y su llamado a la conversión. La Palabra de Dios es compartida bajo las modalidades de Lectura Meditada, Reflexión Comunitaria, Lectio Divina y Noche de Salmos. En las Pequeñas Comunidades de Fé se busca que sus elementos: la Oración, Compartir la Fé, Apoyo Mutuo, Crecimiento y Acción/Misión se conviertan en una forma de vida que nos ayudará a formar, fortalecer, profundizar nuestra fé y a vivir en comunidad.

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and ends at 8:30PM via Zoom.

Eucharistic Miracle of SEEFELD

AUSTRIA, 1384

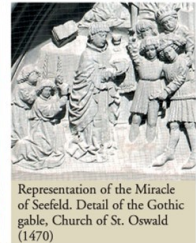

The little city of Seefeld is the goal of many pilgrimages because of the Eucharistic miracle that took place there in 1384. During the Holy Thursday Mass a nobleman by the name of Oswald Milser expected that the priest would give him Communion with the large Host. At the moment he was about to receive Communion, the pavement began to tremble under him, and Oswald felt as if he was being sucked into it. As the priest was returning the Host to the altar, live Blood began to flow from the Sacred Species.

Miracle of Seefeld. Detail of the ceiling

In the little city of Seefeld, Oswald Milser, Lord of Schlosberg, expected, at the Holy Thursday Mass to receive the large Host like that of the celebrating priest. But at the moment he was about to receive Communion, the pavement began to tremble and broke apart. Oswald grasped the altar so as not to fall, and the priest immediately took back the Host from the man's mouth. The trembling stopped, and live Blood began to flow from the Host. There were many witnesses who saw the miracle, and very soon the news spread throughout the whole nation. The Emperor Maximilian I himself was very devoted to the miracle. Today one can visit the Church of St. Oswald where the precious relic of the Host, stained with Blood, is exposed, and also view many paintings depicting the miracle.
